Foot-Ball Outlook.

About forty fellows, responded last Thursday to Captain Durand's call for foot-ball candidates. The practice shows some excellent new material. Young putting up a good game at quarter and Greenway at tackle. Lindenberger plays well at half. Of the old fellows, Pierson and Chadwell are living up to their reputation, and Gould, Branch, and LeBoutillier are playing good ball. Hine, a promising candidate for full-back, is laid up for a few days on account of an injury to his knee. It is rather early to make an estimate, but judging from the practice thus far seen, there is no reason why a good team should not be developed.

Following is the list of candidates: Branch, Lindenberger, N. Barker, J. Barker, Drew, H. I. Martin, Mann, Barnes, Chadwell, Maltby, B. Gould, Stearns, LeBoutillier, Laing, Porter, Nathan, Marton, Miller, Hamilton, Greenway, Young, Drummond, J. M. Smith, Dillmore, Field, Symmonds, F. Allen, Sweater, Elliot, Kelly, Dutton, Potter, Drake, Burns, Lloyd, Haskell, Heilman.

School Organizations.

The Forum.

The Forum met for the first time this year last Friday night. The meeting was well attended by the new fellows, and was opened with a word of welcome to them by the President. O. M. Clark, P.A. '94, very kindly gave the society a review of Forum's work in the past. "The Teaching of Ancient and Modern Languages by the Natural Method" was the subject of an extempore by W. G. Bale. After an extempore on "Our Foot-Ball Prospects This Fall" by Pierson, the debate on the subject, "Resolved: That the Senate Tariff Bill will be less beneficial to the country than the McKinley Bill," was taken up. Harrington and Symonds had the affirmative, and Patterson and Luce the negative. Very few arguments were brought forth by the negative, for, as the leader of the negative said, there were none to be found.

The Forum is but two years old, and yet in that time it has taken such rapid strides in advancement that last year it equalled and outstripped its older sister, Philo.

The advantages of joining and joining early one of the two societies cannot be too strongly dwelt upon, for the ability to think logically and to speak extemporaneously is very essential to an educated man of to-day. These and other departments of literary work are what Philo and Forum engage in. Year by year the old men go and new ones must come in. It is the earnest men, who are interested in such work and willing to work, that Forum wants, not the ability to make a "fine" speech, but the willingness to try. After trial the ability comes. It is hoped that even more fellows than came last year will be heartily welcome.

New Members of the Faculty.

Walter L. Bartlett, instructor in classics and French, is a graduate of Harvard '92. While at college he was a member of the Philosophical Society and received A. B. K. honors in his class. Before coming to Phillips, Mr. Bartlett was a private tutor in Boston.

John L. Phillips, instructor in Latin, was graduated from Dartmouth last spring. He was a member of K. K. K. and "The Tiger" while there. This is Mr. Phillips' first year of teaching. He lives at L.C. 44.

School Meeting.

At the school meeting, held Monday morning, A. Davis, '95, was elected third member of the Foot-ball Management. The Police Force will consist of the following men: W. T. Laing, E. Platt, W. Barker, J. M. Drummond, and C. Sargent. The Cheering Staff was also chosen. The men are H. E. Marshall, W. B. Flandrau, C. Edgell, W. H. Field, Crosby, and V. Barber.

Yale Foot-Ball.

Yale's prospects for an unusually strong eleven this fall seem especially bright, as all the members of last year's team are back and there is new material in college which will give the old men a hard push.

Capt. Hinkey and Greenway, who learned the game on the Andover campus, will probably fill their positions of last year on the ends. The younger brothers of both, also Andover men, will play against their brothers, but it is not likely that they will put them out, as the older men were said last year to be the finest ends in the country. Rodgers, captain of the '93 An-dermen, will play against our team at tackle, and, as Murphy is away, may supplant him. Hazen, who played at Andover last year, will probably hold his own.

The make-up of the centre is some doubt. Similarly to Greenway, Hickok and have brought their brothers from St. Paul's School. Against their brothers, they have plenty to do, although Hickok is in doubt about this year. The new rules make a man indispensable at center, as such Sanford, the middle line runner, may supplant Still-

Armstrong probably will not make it necessary for him to make his time to rowing. Last year's Andover eleven, few peers in long, and is, as matters stand now, a known candidate for half-back.

A South Norwalk preparatory school, and who has considerable fame as a running half-back, is a prominent candidate for one of the positions back of the line.

Dartmouth's New Coach.

Wallace S. Moyle of the Yale foot-ball team of 1891 has been signed as coach of the Dartmouth College team for the coming season. He trained the champion Dartmouth eleven of last year, and is confident that he can do at once for New Hampshire, the Dartmouth men will begin before the opening of the col-

Foot Ball Rules.

The changes are as follows:
Rule I, Section E.—"Kick out is a drop-kick, place or punt, made by a player of the side which has touched the ball down in its goal or into whose touch-in-goal the ball has gone."

"A goal is obtained by kicking the ball in any way except a punt from the field of play over the cross-bar or post of the opponent's goal."

"A fair catch is a catch made direct from a kick by one of the opponents (or a punt out by one of the same side) provided the man intending to make the catch indicates that intention by holding up his hand when running for the ball and also makes a mark with his heel upon catching it, and no other of his side touches the ball. If he is interfered with by an opponent who is off side, or if the ball is thrown after a fair catch, he is given fifteen yards, unless this carries the ball across the goal line, in that case he shall be given the intervening distance. A player having raised his hand he cannot be interfered with by his side, but must make a catch if he succeed in making one."

Rule 14—"There shall be an umpire, a referee and a linesman."

(A)—The umpire is the judge of the conduct of the players, and his decision is final regarding fouls and unfair tactics. The umpire may appeal to both the linesman and referee for testimony regarding cases of unnecessary roughness, off-side play or holding, but they shall not volunteer their opinion, nor give it if they be appealed to upon these points by the captain or players.

Rule 15 (B)—The referee is judge of the position and progress of the ball and his decision is final in all points not covered by the umpire.

(C)—Both umpire and referee shall use whistles to indicate cessation of play on fouls and downs. The linesman shall use a stop-watch in timing the game.

(D)—The umpire shall permit no coaching either by substitutes, coaches or anyone inside the ropes. If such coaching occurs he shall warn the offender, and on the second offence, must have him sent behind the ropes for the remainder of the game.

(E)—The linesman shall, under the advice of the referee, mark the distance gained or lost in the progress of the play, and upon request of the

ENTERED AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER AT ANDOVER POST-OFFICE.

The Andover Press.

The PHILLIPIAN, in behalf of the school, takes this opportunity to welcome into our midst the new teachers and the new men. It is significant that so many have entered the Academy, but the auspicious beginning will mean nothing unless both old and new fellows unite for the common good in pursuing the many interests which center about it. It is very gratifying to see the new men playing on the campus with so much spirit. The religious and the literary societies are now organized and in running order, and everyone is welcome to share in the benefits of these organizations. Cooperation can the results we all hope for be obtained.

Last fall it was very noticeable with what heartiness and good will the new men did what they could and tried to fill whatever breach they found. We do not plead for forwardness, but for good fellowship, which shall embrace energy and modesty. There is abundant opportunity for him who wishes to improve himself.

The Glee Club has commenced practice; and the PHILLIPIAN and Mirror are open to everyone who wishes to try and is willing to give the earnest work which is essential to success. Let it not be said of any new fellow or of any old man that he is not willing to do what he can.

Abbot Academy opened on Thursday with all indications that a successful year was before it. The Seminary opens to-day, and we wish them God speed. With both these institutions Phillips Academy has always had a community of interest. Each one has something to offer and something to gain. This year will be no exception, and we trust will only bind more closely together those who have had the privilege of studying in Andover.

It is useless to disguise the fact that the foot-ball team will be a light one this fall. Indeed, the outlook is gloomy, and the prospects that better men will come out is uncertain. No one knows as yet from where some of the line men are to come. But to become despondent is the last thing to do. A general feeling of despondency will take the spirit out of even the best team. What we must do this fall to be successful is simple enough, if given a moment's careful consideration—cheer and play harder than ever before, and see that an alumnus is here to coach every day of the season, if possible. Here and now we beg the alumni of the old Academy to stand by the team. We need your help more than ever. The skill that will result from your coaching will be of more value than much additional weight. If many of the men who learned the game on Andover's campus will come back this fall for even a day or two and discharge the debt they undoubtedly owe this famous school, we have no doubt of ultimate success for this fall's team. And let every fellow by his presence, money, and words lend all the assistance he can to Captain Durand and his men.

A Short Story.

In introducing my business to the newcomers, and in calling their attention to my stock and premises, I do not wish to overlook the old fellows whose generous favors in the past have rendered it possible for me to have such a complete Tailoring and Gent's Furnishing Store to invite them into. I desire to say that I am prepared to show a carefully selected stock of FINE AND MEDIUM WOOLEN goods for Fall and Winter wear, and that during the vacation we have added greatly to our facilities for producing fine work. We will, as in the past, pay strict attention to orders entrusted to our care, taking special care of orders for cleaning, repairing, and pressing; which are so essential for a well-dressed student. We will call for and deliver goods when requested to do so. OUR FURNISHING DEPARTMENT will contain the choicest Furnishings, Hats, Caps, etc. AND LAST, OUR LAUNDRY. We pride ourselves on having a laundry that is second to none. If you have not already tried it do so the first chance you get. Our team calls three times each week, and returns the same promptly. —J. M. BRADLEY.
