Base-ball at the Colleges.

PENNSYLVANIA.

Pennsylvania base-ball prospects for a championship team are bright. All of last year's team with the exception of Boswell are in college. The great weakness about the Quaker team is in the pitching department. However, they have plenty of pitching material, and under the able coaching of Gus Weyhing a pitcher of worth should be developed. Capt. Blakely has very good material to pick from in the professional schools, where there are several good players who were barred last year under the one-year residence rule. It is possible that Thomas will not play this year, but it is to be hoped he will.

PRINCETON.

Indications point to Princeton's having a team equal to the best. It is true that they have lost the invaluable King and that terrific hitter Mackenzie, but those men are the only men gone and there is plenty of good material with which to fill their places. Reiter and Trenchard are the most promising candidates for the places left vacant by King and Mackenzie. If Reiter does not turn out to be a satisfactory man, Captain Brooks will undoubtedly go to second base and put the younger Ward at shortstop. In the pitching department Princeton will show up strong. If Bradley's arm is all right this year, Princeton will rank very high, as he is deemed by many experts Carter's equal when in condition.

BROWN.

Brown will feel the loss of Tenny and Steere severely, for they were the mainstay of the Brown team. Steere's place can be fairly well filled by his brother, W. Steere. Tenny's place behind the bat is the one that Brown will be unable to fill satisfactorily. Seven of last year's team are still at college and will play this year. In White and Russell the Brown team has two pitchers of great ability.

CORNELL.

At Cornell the base-ball team will be nearly the same as last year and it should be stronger, for the pitching department, which was the only weakness last year, will be strengthened by the addition of Priest. Cobb, who pitched last year, will probably catch.

School Organizations.

Forum held its weekly meeting Friday evening. T. K. Faxon was admitted to the society. The literary exercises were opened with declamations rendered by Shivell and W. G. Bale. The extemporaneous address was delivered by Carberry on "Resolved, That the signs of the times point to an improvement in the Social World."

"Resolved, That the most effective means of restricting the liquor traffic is the elimination of personal profit," was the question for debate. E. T. Noble and Goddard were the leaders on the affirmative; the negative was sustained by W. M. Wheeler and Macfarlane. There spoke from the house Carberry, Christie, Mandevilla and Goddard. The debate proved interesting. The affirmative won the vote of the house while the decision of the chair lay with the negative. Farley read the critique.

Philo.

The following program will be offered at the regular meeting of Philo, Friday evening: Critique, Beardsley; declamation, Bruce; select reading, Richardson. The subject for debate will be, "Resolved, That women should not be allowed to vote." F. B. Edwards will lead the affirmative with McCurdy as assistant, and Lawrence, the negative, with Fortesque as assistant.

The Forum.

The program to be presented at the meeting of Forum, Friday evening, is as follows: Critique, Piper; declamation, Symonds; select reading, Farley; extempore, Clarke. The debate a week from Friday will be, "Resolved, That the American republic is degenerating." Wier will lead the affirmative assisted by Franklin, and Goddard, the negative, assisted by Pierson.

Inquiry.

On Sunday evening reports were given by Woodbine, delegate to the recent meeting of the Boston Students' Missionary Association, and by Richardson, delegate to the district Y. M. C. A. convention held at Merrimac last week.

Musical Clubs.

The Glee, Banjo and Mandolin Clubs are to give a concert in Lowell on the sixth of next month, and in Malden on the ninth.

Tennis Association.

Nothing was done at the meeting of the Tennis Association Tuesday noon, on account of the small attendance. It is proposed to hold a meeting tomorrow morning to disband the Association.

Base-Ball.

The battery candidates are kept at work in the cage for an hour every noon and on Tuesdays and Fridays are taken for a short run. The men trying are at present: Pitchers, Minton and Phillips; catchers, Branch, Waddell and Wentworth. The other candidates have been formed into a running squad. Each afternoon a short run is taken which will be continued for a few weeks until the list of candidates is thinned when the regular work will begin.

Base-ball practice commenced at the "Gym" last Saturday and the following men offered themselves as candidates: Pitchers—Sedgwick, Minton, Phillips, Haskell, W. M. Lewis.

Catchers—Palmer, Waddell, Wentworth, Stuart, Branch, Risley.

First base—Barton, Field, Wright, Hoye, Butler, Colt, Edwards.

Second base—Crawford, Drummond, Chadwell, Holman, Elliott, Davis, McKinnon, White.

Short stop—Barnes.

Third base—Dunn, Hinman, Loomis, Hutchinson, Hall, Harker, Lowrie.

Fielders—Potter, Stickney, DuFrene, Pope, Eastman, Wakefield, Churchill, Mann, Clarke, E. H. Lewis, Dayton, Kinney, Rainbolt, Henry, Woodruff, Schweppe, Eddy, Barrell, Sargeant, Babcock, Blodgett, Carleton, Durston, Burns, Stevenson, Franklin.

Handicap Meeting at Exeter.

The first preliminary meeting in preparation for the Winter Tournament was held in the gymnasium at Exeter last Friday evening. A large number of students watched the events, which were very successful. The 20-yard dash, especially, proved very exciting. Following are the winners and their records:

Pole vault, winner, Goodwin, 8 feet, 3 inches.

Standing high jump, winner, Jack, 4 feet, 2 inches.

High kick, winner, Scannell, 8 feet, 6 inches.

Running high jump, tie, Dunstan,

Richards, n, 4 feet, 11 inches.

Fence vault, winner, Jack, 6 feet, 4 3/4 inches.

Rope climbing, winner, Morton.

Parallel bars, no decision.

Flying rings, no decision.

Professor Graves' Outing.

Prof. and Mrs. Graves have been invited to make the Mediterranean tour as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Stearns of Boston, P.A. '46, spending four or five or six months in Italy, Egypt, and other resorts. The trustees of the Academy have granted Prof. Graves leave of absence for this purpose, and the party will sail from New York for Naples by the Normannia, Feb. 16. Prof. Graves spent six months in Italy in 1888. The best wishes of the school will attend them.

"Pot-Pourri" of '95, to be Printed in Andover.

Bids for printing and binding the "Pot-Pourri" of '95, were received from Rockwell & Churchill, Boston, A. A. Beal & Co., Borton, Jas. Ward, Jr., Lawrence, and the Andover Press, Andover, Mass. The contract was awarded to the Andover Press, they being the lowest bidders.

The February Mirror.

The contents of the February number of the Mirror, which will appear February 4th, are as follows: "Immortelles," D.; "Ama-no Hoshi-date," Ali; "A Sailor's Story," R. S. Benner; "A Winter's Day," P. G. Carleton; "Bermuda Days," W. H. Field; "Old John's Story," G. B. Ellis; "That Fred—Burns," Arthur Drinkwater; "All's Well that Ends Well," Marlborough Churchill.

Notice.

Those who are candidates for the PHILLIPIAN Board meet in Room 5 at 12.10 this noon.

Base-Ball Notice.

The squad will report in the "Gym" at two P. M. for practice. Per Order.

ENTERED AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER AT ANDOVER POST-OFFICE.

The Andover Press.

WEDNESDAY, JAN. 30, 1895.

An earnest request has been expressed in a recent communication that some action be taken by the Forum toward renewing the course of lectures which that society has given the past two years. While such a course of lectures is undoubtedly of the highest value and is always to be encouraged at Andover, the task has been undertaken in past years by the society in a purely voluntary spirit, and from no sense of duty or obligation. The action of the Forum in the matter would therefore be governed in great measure by its own needs and desires. The poor return in the matter of attendance which the school made the society last year for its public spiritedness was enough to put a damper on its zeal. We are aware, however, that the lack of necessary funds is the chief drawback and that if this difficulty can be overcome the general sentiment of the society is in favor of renewing the course. As yet the course is not an assured thing. If it becomes so, the school is in justice bound to give it the heartiest support.

Base-Balls for the Trophy Case.

M. L. Paige, P. S. '94, a member of the nines of '92, '93 and '94, has just given seven base-balls, used in the most prominent victories of the team during the three past seasons, to Mr. Pettee who will have them placed in the trophy case. The balls are painted with the colors of the opposing teams, with the score and date of each game upon them. They include games won from Exeter, Brown, Lawrenceville, Dartmouth, and the Princeton Freshman, and will make a valuable addition to the trophies already in the case.

The Day of Prayer for Colleges.

The day of Prayer for Colleges will be observed here next Thursday. There will be a service at 3 o'clock in the Chapel Church which all students are expected to attend. The services will be in charge of Prof. Hinks and the principal address will be given by the Rev. Charles E. Jefferson of Chelsea, Mass. The regular recitations of Thursday afternoon will be omitted.

November Club Concert.

An enthusiastic and appreciative audience greeted Mr. Timothe Adamowski and Mr. Clayton Johns at the November Club House last Friday evening. No such artist has visited Andover since Remenyi was here two winters ago. Mr. Adamowski's playing was for the most part excellent and done with much feeling. He rendered Svendsen's Romanza well. A great deal of the liveliness and grotesqueness in his famous Polish dance was brought out in Mazurka. The Hungarian Dance recalled to mind strongly Remenyi. Mr. Johns, the well-known composer, was the pianist and did his work faultlessly. Some of his music is highly thought of; many bits which Mr. Elliott Hubbard sang were certainly very sweet. Mr. Hubbard sang in Miss Little's place. Save in "I Love and the World is Mine" and one other thing he neither reached his audience nor attained the standard expected.

CALENDAR.

Wednesday, Jan. 30.

Meeting of Inquiry in Society Hall at 6.45.

Friday, Feb. 1.

Philo meets in Society Hall at 7 o'clock.

Regular meeting of Forum at 7 o'clock in Room 9.

Casey, '96, has been chosen captain of the Exeter nine.

Smith, P.S. '92, was in town over Sunday.

Harvard's annual winter in-door meeting will be held on February 16.

A championship contest in fancy-figure skating was held recently at Princeton.

Wright & Ditson have secured the base-ball order for 1895 through their agent, J. B. Pendleton.

The members of the foot-ball team at Lawrenceville are to be presented with souvenirs by the school.

The report for the past foot-ball season at Lawrenceville shows the expenses to have been $591.86.

Pennsylvania has recently challenged Princeton to a dual track and field meeting, to be held in the spring.

Columbia has challenged Pennsylvania to a boat race, and it is thought that the two colleges will meet this year.

The elocution class for Seniors and Middlers met for the beginning of the term's work on Thursday. Over forty men were present.

Pennsylvania will put a Freshman crew on the water this spring. Efforts will be made to arrange a race with the Freshmen of one of the other colleges.

Mr. Robbins, a graduate of Princeton in the class of '94, has been chosen to fill the vacancy in the faculty at Lawrenceville caused by the resignation of Dr. Patterson.

At a meeting of the '95 men who entered the Academy as Juniors, arrangements were made to have a reunion supper on Saturday evening, Feb. 2nd, at the Franklin House in Lawrence.

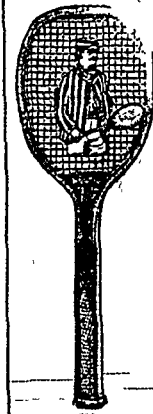

Base-ball and track athletics at Harvard will probably be removed next year from Holmes Field to Soldiers' Field, following the example of the foot-ball management.

Walter Camp, S. J. Elder, and fifteen of Yale's faculty met recently and talked over the foot-ball question. The weight of opinion was against interfering with the game, especially as such a move now would appear to be an admission of undue violence on the part of the Yale men in the Springfield game.

The trial debate to choose Harvard's speakers for the Harvard-Princeton debate will be held Friday, Feb. 15. The question is, "Resolved: That if it were possible a reasonable property qualification for the exercise of the municipal franchise in the United States would be desirable." Harvard has the negative.

The Harvard-Andover Club.

At a recent meeting of the Harvard-Andover Club it was proposed to enter into communication with the academies at Exeter and Andover with a view of re-establishing athletic contests between them. This motion, however, was dropped, and it is probable that no further action will be taken on the matter at present.

There has been a feeling at Harvard that the athletic standing of Andover and Exeter was endangered by the discontinuance of the annual football and base-ball matches, and that they might be revived through the influence of academy graduates at Harvard.—Daily News.

Harvard-Yale Baseball.

The manager of the Yale baseball team has finally sanctioned the dates arranged by Manager White of the Harvard team and the games will be played as follows: June 20 at Cambridge and June 25 at New Haven.
The third game, in case of a tie, will be played June 29 in New York.

Harvard plays Colgate University
May 27, and one game has been arranged with Princeton for May 30.

Captain Rustin of Yale has decided to dispense with the services of any professional coach this year, although John Clarkson was at liberty to coach.
The training will begin very late this year—probably not before March 1, although the batteries will be in active training long before that.—News.
