Opening Games of Street Team Series.

The first two of the street games were played on Saturday and both resulted in ties.

The first game played was between Phillips Street and Latin Commons. Phillips Street made most of her gains by sending Porter through the centre, although Simmons made some pretty runs around the end. Newton and Crosby played strong games in the line.

Pingree was easily the star for Latin Commons, both in his sure tackling and punting. Emerson played a hard game at end and few gains were made around him.

The two teams were evenly matched and neither side was able to score in two 20-minute halves.

School Street and English Commons were the contestants in the second game, and though both sides scored, the game resulted in a tie. The features of the game were the fine interference and end runs of the School Street and English Commons' strong centre bucking. Wheeler put up a very strong game at quarter for School Street and Senn outplayed his heavier opponent at guard. Hughes, though light, put up a strong game for English Commons at Centre, and Waddell at half did some good line bucking.

Neither side scored during the first half, although School Street had the ball within five yards of her opponent's goal line when time was called.

In the second half, English Commons, by strong centre plays forced the ball down the field from the kick-off and Waddell was pushed over for a touchdown. Gilpatrick failed at try for goal.

After School Street's kick-off, English Commons was forced to kick and Senn broke through and blocked the ball. Norton picked it up and made a touchdown. Funk failed to kick the goal, leaving the score 4-1.

During the game Shoup of the English Commons team broke his leg in two places. Hughes of the same team sprained his ankle.

Saturday's Games.

College foot-ball games on Saturday resulted as follows: Cornell 6, Brown 4; Wesleyan 14, Trinity 6; Dartmouth 10, Williams 5; West Point 16, Union 0; Lehigh 6, Annapolis 4; Harvard Freshmen, 12, Pennsylvania Freshmen 4; Yale 26, Orange A. C. 0.

L. C. 6; Phillips Street 0.

In two fifteen minute halves Tuesday afternoon Latin Commons defeated Phillips Street by the above score.

In the first half neither side scored and the ball frequently changed hands.

In the second half Pingree made the long run of the game and by fine dodging and sprinting made a touchdown. Bayles kicked the goal. Soon after the kick-off Dewitt broke through centre for twenty yards and the ball was forced to Phillips' 5-yard line.

Phillips Street held well and from that time neither goal was in great danger. Pingree and Dewitt played best for Latin Commons while all of Phillips Street's backs put up a good game for their team. The line-up was as follows:

Worcester-Williston Games.

Foot-ball rivalry between Worcester Academy and Williston began in 1890. During that year two games were played, both of which Williston won, though she had but a small margin in the second. Since 1890 an annual match has taken place, held alternately at Worcester and Easthampton. In 1891 Williston failed to score against Worcester, but the next year atoned for her defeat by an overwhelming victory. Williston has never lost on her own field while Worcester has been twice defeated at home. Out of seven games Williston has won five. During six seasons she has lost but twice, and in number of points has scored 138 against 86.

SUMMARY:

| Year. | Worcester. | Williston. |

Worcester Academy 18; Exeter 0.

The Worcester Academy eleven went to Exeter Monday and fully retrieved its defeat at the hands of Williston by an easy victory over the Exeter team. The Exeter backs twice forced their way from the centre of the field to Worcester's 10-yard line, and once within a yard and a half of the goal-line, but Worcester defense proved too strong, and Exeter was unable to score. The Worcester backs played a snappy game and succeeded in getting the ball over the line three times. Edmands kicked all three goals. This game closes the foot-ball season of both academies.

The line-up was as follows:

| WORCESTER. | | EXETER. | |

From the New York Sun.

We quote the following from an article on the Yale eleven in the New York Sun. It will be seen that the old Andover men on the eleven receive great praise:

"Rodgers is a fierce, fearless player, and his tackling is sure and hard."

"Murphy always plays strongly. He is the best tackle Yale has had since the days of Winter and Wallis. In falling on the ball, getting down the field on kicks, and in breaking through the line, he is incomparable."

"Louis Hinkey is not a showy player like Bass, but is equally effective, and makes some of the most impressive tackles on the field. To those who know the game, his playing is clean and superb."

"Letton is one of the prettiest kickers Yale has seen for many a day, and with Jerrems at full-back too, it cannot be said, as was first expected, that Butterworth's absence will much weaken the team."

Of the six men constituting the Princeton-Yale advisory committee for the coming foot-ball contest, two are Phillips Andover men, Tracy H. Harris for Princeton and O. G. Jennings for Yale.

Abbot Academy Recitals.

The first recital in the Abbot Academy course, will be given on Dec. 5, by Mr. Anthony Stankowitch of New York, and Miss Bertha Cushing, the well-known contralto of Boston. This recital promises to be a very delightful one, as both the performers are thorough musicians, and will undoubtedly please their audience.

November Club Concert.

The second entertainment of the series at the November Club House will be held on next Friday evening, at 8 o'clock. There will be a short musical programme, consisting mainly of vocal solos by Mr. George H. Tyler of Boston and Mrs. Clark. There will also be piano solos by Miss Brooks of Wellesley College.

A Challenge from Williston.

The following answer was sent by the Andover Foot-Ball management to a challenge received from the Williston management for a game of foot-ball this fall. The challenge had to be refused, as the Andover eleven had gone out of training when the challenge was received.

ANDOVER, MASS., Nov. 15, 1895.

MR. W. L. DAY,

Dear Sir:—

Our foot-ball season closed yesterday with the Lawrenceville game, so it will be impossible to play you. The team went out of training last night.

Very sincerely,

FRANK T. CRAWFORD, M'gr.

School Organizations.

Forum.

The postponed meeting of Forum will be held Friday evening. The programme which was arranged for last Friday evening will be followed out. It is especially desired that there be a large attendance of members at this meeting.

Inquiry.

The topic for discussion at the meeting of Inquiry this evening is "Lessons from the Lives of Great Missionaries."

DeSaulles, last year's Lawrenceville quarter-back, has been playing the same position on the Yale scrub.

ENTERED AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER AT ANDOVER
POST-OFFICE.

The Andover Press.

WEDNESDAY, Nov. 26, 1895.

We are glad to announce the election of Mr. R. W. Chandler, '96 and Mr. A. A. Thomas '97 to the Phillipian Board.

The time has come again to offer complaint against an abuse which, no doubt, originated with the first game played on the campus. The matter in question is the crowding over the side lines during the street team games. The subject has been brought up so many times and has become so unpleasant from long familiarity that it is useless to do more than lay open the facts. It would seem that the police force might render the school a service by its presence at these games, without in any way overstepping the bounds of its duties. Yet but little can be done in the way of improvement unless the fellows realize how necessary a clear field is, especially in the championship games. We trust that this complaint will not pass by unnoticed. There will be an opportunity for your consideration for the players in this afternoon's game.

Since the close of the foot-ball season and the consequent lull in athletic interest, a great deal of attention is naturally turned to indoor exercise. The exercise taken in the gymnasium is almost the only means of physical recreation within our grasp during the winter months.

The gymnasium upon the hill is not one upon which Andover prides herself for its modern equipment and construction; but, despite the lack of more modern apparatus, the benefits to be drawn from its use may be underrated. It is often the case that a school or college flourishes under the burden of financial difficulties. It is not the amount of its endowment so much as the energy and spirit of its members and management which are accountable for its success. The application may not be amiss here. The lack of complete apparatus in the gymnasium can, in a large measure, be compensated for by faithful daily exercise. It is faithful work day by day that brings a man his reward.

The gymnasium classes which are formed every year to increase the interest in gymnastic exercise, should, when they are organized, be liberally attended. And we earnestly hope that interest in this indoor work will not so flag this year as to render a winter tournament impossible. That such was the case last year is to be regretted. The error should be atoned for this winter, and all who have an aptitude for gymnasium work should keep the winter tournament in view.

B. A. A. Winter Sports.

The B. A. A. will hold a boxing meeting during the third week in December, in the Club gymnasium. The club will also hold invitation athletic meetings for Harvard and Tech. athletes the first and second weeks in December. On January 18, the big boxing meeting will be held in Mechanics Hall. There will probably be nine bouts, with all New England pitted against Chicago, Pittsburg and Cleveland. The big athletic meeting will be held on February 8, in Mechanics Hall, and the boys' meeting will be held in March. At the big meeting it is hoped that for attractions all the international athletic champions will be secured.
