Editors of the Phillipian:

Now that the spring term has begun it is high time for the different streets to choose their base-ball captains. Both of the class teams have organized and there is no time to waste if the street championship is to come off with any degree of success. It is very little trouble, if any, to elect officers, and the sooner this is attended to the better.

A PLAYER.

Editors of the Phillipian:

Owing to some lack of management there is a great scarcity of light in the reading room during the evening. Several times lately it has become necessary for the fellows to collect under one gas fixture, the papers at the other end of the room being unreadable on account of the lack of gas light. This ought to be remedied at once.

School Meeting.

Monday morning at a school meeting held after chapel, Capt. Tyler urged that every fellow should turn out and try to do something for the Track Team.

Notice.

Cross country runs for Track Team candidates every day unless contrary notice is posted. Wednesday and Saturday at 2 o'clock, other days at 4 o'clock. Everybody urged to try.

Per order,
CAPTAIN.

The editors of the Mirror have requested that some notice be given in these columns of the Anniversary number to be published in May. According to an annual custom since the Mirror's foundation this issue is to be a special illustrated number and it is desirable that as many cuts as possible be handed in to make the magazine additionally attractive. The announcement of the editors is worthy the attention of those who are gifted in this direction and are willing to sacrifice a trifle of time for the benefit of a school magazine.

Olympic Games.

The teams of the Boston Athletic Association and Princeton University, which will represent American athletics at the revival of the Olympic Games at Athens, sailed from New York, March 21. The games will begin on April 5, and last until April 15. The American athletes will compete in the 100, 300, 500 and 1500 metre foot races, 110 metre hurdle race, pole vault, running broad and high jumps, and the long distance run from Marathon to Athens, a distance of 48 kilometres.

In addition to these events there will be gymnastic sports, including individual exhibitions, exhibitions on the rings, parallel bars, horse leaping and team work; fencing and wrestling; shooting, with army rifles, carbines and pistols; nautical sports, races for steam yachts over a ten-mile course, races for sailing vessels, rowing for one-oared skiffs, two and four-oared yawls, with outriggers; swimming, 100, 500, 1000 metres; a game of water polo.

The program will also contain bicycling races for 2000 to 10,000 metres and 100 kilometres; also a race for two hours, and athletic games, lawn tennis, singles and doubles, and cricket.

The new series of Olympian games was opened in the Athenian Stadion on Sunday. More than 40,000 people were admitted to the stadion, including the king of Greece, the duke of Sparta, the crown prince and other members of the royal family, the members of the diplomatic corps and many other prominent persons. The Americans who took part were victors in several of the events, despite the fact that they have been there a very short time and had little practice after their long ocean voyage. The hills near the stadion, from which a view could be obtained, were covered with people who were to poor to pay to enter the stadion and great enthusiasm was shown.

Two Americans were entered in the discus throw, Garrett of Princeton and Clark of Harvard, a member of the B. A. A. Garrett won with a throw of 29.15 metres (93.35 feet). The three heats of the 100 metre race were won by three Americans, Lane of Princeton, and Curtis and Burke of B. A. A. The first heat of the 400 metre race was won by Jameson of Princeton.

W. J. Squire, P. A. '97, has left school.

School Organizations.

Forum.

The following is the program for Forum next Friday night: Select reading, K. Smith; extemporaneous address, G. Berry; speeches, P. Lindenberg and B. F. Adams; critique by Bale. Debate, "Resolved, That a Permanent International Court of Arbitration Should Be Established by England and the United States." Affirmative by A. C. Thomas and A. B. Franklin, negative by McCauley and Burns Henry.

Philo.

The programme for the first meeting of Philo is as follows: Critique, R. S. Newcombe; extempore, E. L. Skinner; address, Farwell; debate, Resolved, "That Complete Suffrage be granted to Women." The affirmative will be supported by Freund and French. Nash and Irons will defend the negative.

Inquiry.

The subject for the meeting of Inquiry this evening will be "Secrets of Strong Lives." Luke 7: 19-28.

The Track Team.

The following are at the track team training table at Major Marland's: Palmer, F. H. Lindenberg, Dunton, A. H. Richardson, Crouse, Newcombe, Perry, Peter, Senn, Gaskill, K. Smith, Douglas, Cady, Barnwell, Stone, Tyler. The long distance men go out every day with Tyler and the short distance ones with Dunton. There is a scarcity of men for the hurdles, weight-throwing and the jumps, and any man who has any ability at all in any of these events should tender his services to the captain without delay.

It is the plan of the management in the near future to have a hare and hound run or paper chase, open to all members of the school. The full plans will appear later.

Class Meeting.

P. S. '97, has elected the following officers for the term: President, T. G. Whaling; vice-president, R. A. Kinne; secretary and treasurer, George Lander.

At a joint meeting of P. A. and P. S. '97 held on Tuesday for the purpose of electing a temporary base-ball captain, J. Wentworth '97 resigned, A. Barnwell, P. S. '97, was elected.

Yale Oarsmen.

The final weeding out of the candidates for the eight-oared crew, which is to represent Yale at Henley in July, took place last week, and only fourteen oarsmen remain in training of the ninety which presented themselves the first week in January as candidates for the crew that Yale will send to England. From the fourteen men left, the regular eight will be selected, and in addition three substitutes will be taken across the ocean. A coxswain, Manager de Sibour of the navy, Robert J. Cook and one other coach, most likely Dr. John A. Hartwell, will make up the party that is booked to sail on June 6 on the Berlin.

The fourteen men who are now in training for the eight are as follows: J. Langford, '97; S. Patterson, '97; J. McC. Longacre, '96; P. H. Bailey, '97; J. O. Rodgers, '98; B. M. Beard, '96; A. Brown, Jr., '96; J. H. Simpson, '97; D. F. Rogers, '98; T. W. Miller, '97; P. D. Mills '97 S.; P. Whitney, '98; G. T. Marsh, '97, and Captain R. B. Treadway, '96. Judging from the way the oarsmen are now rowing, the following is the most likely make-up of the final eight: Stroke, Langford; No. 7, Treadway (captain); No. 6, Longacre; No. 5, Bailey; No. 4, Rodgers; No. 3, Beard; No. 2, Brown or Marsh, Mills; bow, Rogers.

Of the eight positions in the boat, six and possibly seven are practically decided upon, Langford, Treadway, Longacre, Bailey, Rodgers and Beard.

Perhaps the most striking feature of Yale's crew this year is that it will be a very heavy one in point of weight. The first eight as it is rowing to-day averages 177 1-2 pounds, the individual weights being as follows: Langford, 176; Treadway, 173; Longacre, 182; Bailey, 177; Rodgers, 189; Beard, 184; Brown, 171; Rogers, 167. From these weights it will be seen that three of the eight men weigh over 180, while four others are over 170, and the lightest man of the eight weighing 167 pounds, which is about two pounds less than the average weight of Yale's crews of past years.

Professor Churchill has recently received the appointment to the chair of Homiletics in the Seminary.

O. M. Clark, P. A. '94, Yale, '98, A. Hine, P. A. '95, Yale '99, were in town on Saturday.

ENTERED AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER AT ANDOVER POST-OFFICE.

The Andover Press.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 8, 1896.

We infer from the remarks by Captain Tyler after chapel Saturday morning that the support of the track team from a physical point of view is not what it ought to be or what the reputation of the school demands. This we are sorry to state is true, as was seen by the lack of spirit shown during the last two terms. It is absolutely necessary that every able-bodied man, even though he has never seen a track before, should turn out and see what he can do towards making a good team.

In former years Andover has had the very best kind of teams, and has turned out some of the best athletes among the colleges, many of whom knew nothing of athletics until they began here. Plenty of other men can do the same thing. There are two large meets before us this term, the Interscholastic at Cambridge, and one with Worcester here. Active interest is what is needed to put up any kind of a showing in either.

The unusual delay in announcing the Means speakers this year has occasioned some uneasiness in the minds of many members of the school and particularly among those directly interested.

It is not generally known in whose hands the appointment of a committee to pass judgment upon the essays is placed; it is probable that a committee has by this time been chosen. If such is not the case, we feel that the duty falls upon us to bring the matter to the attention of the responsible party.

The competition should take place as soon as possible in the spring term, as the latter part of the term, especially for seniors, is crowded with engagements of many sorts. The customary time for the competition is the first week in May. It cannot now occur till some time later. Out of justice to those who have submitted essays, the successful competitors should be announced at the earliest possible date.

New Tennis Courts.

The work on the new tennis courts, which was begun last Fall and had to be delayed on account of the cold weather, will soon be commenced again, so that they will be ready by the first of June. It will probably take a year or two to get them into first class condition, but they will be a great addition to that branch of athletics in the school.

The management is working hard to have them finished, and all that has to be awaited for now is until the ground gets in good condition.

The old courts back of the school will soon be repaired.

Crimson Candidates.

At a meeting Monday evening of candidates for the Harvard Crimson from the freshman class, seventeen men presented themselves. They are H. P. Bale P. A. '95, Paul Bancroft, H. L. Blackwell, T. H. Blatchford, A. E. Branch P. A. '95, J. P. Cotton, R. H. Cox, T. H. Endicott, J. W. Farley, C. A. Hamilton, E. Lissner, H. P. Macomber, Albert Mehlinger, William C. Quinby, J. E. Rousmaniere, John Ware, Harold Williams, Jr.

G. G. Ward, P. S. '95, Yale '99, is coxswain on the Yale Varsity crew.
