Boston A. A. Meet.

The following men have entered the B. A. A. meet:

40 yd. dash—H. S. Edwards, R. G. Edwards, C. Sumner.

45 yd. dash (Novice)—C. W. Fry, C. B. Kelley.

45 yd. hurdles—C. S. Scullin.

1000 yd. run—W. D. Nichols, Whittemore.

1 mile run—L. Lindenburgh, H. L. Ferry, Schildmiller, M. K. Smith, R. A. Petit.

Shot put—Hlislop.

High jump—McGovern.

The Yale Interscholastic Athletic association will hold its first meet May 24. Andover will probably send a team, as will also Exeter and some of the larger schools of New England.

Mr. C. E. Kelley.

Owing to the serious illness of Mr. Merrill, which will prevent him from meeting his classes for some time, Mr. Clarence E. Kelley will take up his work. Mr. Kelley was born at Merrimac, Mass., and prepared at the Haverhill high school for Harvard. After his graduation there, he taught at St. Paul school, Concord, and later became sub-master of the Haverhill high school. This position he held for nineteen years and was then appointed head master, in which capacity he has been serving for five years.

Dramatic Club Trials.

The following men qualified for the final trials of the Dramatic club at the preliminary trials on Tuesday evening: R. Park, I. H. Gallyon, J. R. Williams, R. H. Moorehouse, L. C. Barton, R. Angell, G. T. Stetson, C. B. Clark, C. Mitchell and MacRobert. The final trials will be held next Monday afternoon before Mr. Hurley, the coach. All candidates must procure their parts from N. F. Bartlett at the Ricker house.

Books Missing.

The following books have been taken from the history library: Montcalm and Wolfe, two volumes; Bancroft's History of the United States, Volume II; Andrews' History of the United States, Volume I; Froude's History of United States, Volume X; Kiepert's Atlas.

Some of these books have been missing for some time and should be returned to the library as soon as possible.

W. T. Reid to Address Inquiry.

The regular meeting of the Society of Inquiry tomorrow evening at 6.45, will be addressed by Mr. W. T. Reid, the head coach of the Harvard football team and captain of the baseball team last Spring. The management is fortunate in procuring a speaker as well known as Mr. Reid, and there is no need to urge a full attendance.

FOOTBALL SUMMARY.

By special request, we print the following tabulated record of the football season, showing all the men who played, in what games they played and what positions in each game:—

E. Played in Exeter game.

Kinney, Taylor, and Watkins played in all the games. Thirty-seven men were used during the season.

Andover vs. Harvard Varsity.

This afternoon on Soldier's Field, Cambridge, the hockey team will play the Harvard Varsity. The team has been unable to practice on Rabbit's pond, with the exception of yesterday, but has practiced shooting in the old gym. This game is the hardest match on the schedule and the team is extremely unfortunate in being handicapped by the loss, through conditions, of several of the best men.

The team will have dinner in Andover and take the 12.37 for Boston. From there they will take the electric to Cambridge and to Soldiers Field, where the game will be called at 3.30 sharp. The line-up will be somewhat changed and several will have to play new positions for the first time.

Forwards—Hodge, Allworth, Dousman, O'Brien.

Cover point—P. L. Reed.

Point—Silleck.

Goal—Heckscher.

Substitutes—Paul Reed, Townsend

Brothers' Field.

Work on the "Brothers' Field" is now under way, but owing to the condition of the ground very little can be done on it this winter. The trenches for drainage sewer have been dug, and the pipes are on the field ready to be laid. The work of grading will take considerable time, and it is doubtful whether the field will be ready for use until the baseball season of next year.

Notices.

INQUIRY—Meeting tomorrow evening in Society Hall will be addressed by Mr. Reid of Harvard.

TRACK—Track men report at the track house at 2.30. Shot putters and high jumpers report at the old gymnasium at the same hour.

POT-POURRI—All who intend to try for the position of artist on the Pot-Pourri hand their names to Kirkpatrick. More are requested to try as perhaps two will be taken on. A prize of five Pot Pourris will be given the one handing in the most "grinds," three for the one handing in the second largest number, and one for the third.

Musical Clubs.

The following are the recent elections to the three musical clubs:

Glee club—C. L. Scullin, W. W. Thayer, C. H. Scribner and A. W. Andrews.

Banjo club—E. A. Brewer, E. T. Hall and C. C. Perkins.

Mandolin club—W. H. Huntley Wickwire, R. H. Edwards and Ferry.

Assistant Track Team Manager.

William Herbert Oskamp '03, of Cincinnati, O., was elected assistant manager of the track team at a school meeting held Thursday morning.

Forum.

The regular meeting of Forum was opened last evening by repeating the Lord's prayer.

Trials for the Philo-Forum debate substituted the regular program. While the judges were making their decision, a critique of the speakers was given by Davis.

Mr. Freeman, speaking for the judges, announced their decision as follows:

Leader—R. L. Paterson.

Assistant—J. N. Greely.

Assistant—F. S. Bale.

Alternate—R. Park.

The following members of the faculty acted as judges: Mr. Freeman, Mr. Phillips and Mr. Durand.

The question for the debate was: Resolved, "That the Nicaraguan canal should be built and fortified by the United States government." After President Bale had thanked the judges in behalf of the society, the meeting adjourned.

Philo.

The meeting of Philo last evening opened with the repeating of the Lord's prayer. After the roll call and reading of the minutes, Anderson, Reynolds and Clough were voted members of the society. The names of Keeney, Dousman and Heckscher were proposed for membership. Ayers reported as chairman of the Banquet committee.

Topics of the Week was given by Kelley and the select reading by McCurdy. The trials for the Philo-Forum debate came next. The question for debate was: Resolved, "That labor unions are a menace rather than an aid to the community as a whole." The following men spoke on the question: Riggs, Thayer, Clark, Starks, Stimson. Professors Benner, Forbes and Eaton acted as judges. The last named, as chairman, gave the decision in favor of Thayer, Clark and Stimson. After the critique by Richardson, the meeting adjourned.

The program for the next meeting will be as follows:

Address, Ayers.

Declamation, Starks.

Topics of the Week, Clark.

Select reading, Taylor.

Critique, Ayers.

In place of the regular debate, a Philo Senate will be held.

Andover Catalogue.

The Rev. Eugene C. Webster of Boston, is making an effort to complete the general catalogue of Phillips Andover. The catalogue will contain the names of alumni, with their classes, occupations and present addresses. Many of the addresses and occupations of students since 1854 are unknown, and friends and graduates are requested to send information to Mr. Webster.

The Phillipian.

Saturday, January 25, 1902

The hockey team has not as yet been accorded that recognition of the school's gratitude which all our athletic teams enjoy. Today they play Harvard Varsity, and whatever be the outcome, let us at least clap them as they come into chapel, Monday morning.

The communication in regard to the method of electing managers, which appeared in our last issue treated of a subject which is of interest to all. Various methods have been tried here and in most of the colleges, and as a result of years of experience, it has been found best to have the managers chosen by appointment. In some colleges the student body has no voice at all in the matter. The chief danger in an open election arises from the peculiar characteristics required of a manager. Popular men are not as a rule business-like. Whatever evils there may be in the present system, and we admit that there are some, its merits and past success prove its superiority. Under the old system, which was tried for many years here, men of great popularity but few business qualities came into office, and, having no supervision, left the athletic association greatly in debt.

It would be very unwise to change the system, especially as the athletic association is at present in debt to the amount of $10,000 which was borrowed from the trustees for the new athletic field. With careful management and generous contributions, the association hopes to meet its obligations and eventually add the Brothers' Field to the present athletic resources of the school.

The great weakness in the plan suggested by the communication lies in the method of cutting down the names after the nominations. It is doubtful whether any member of the faculty would be willing to act as a censor in determining the eligible candidates.

In looking back over the financial success of the various managements and the merits of the managers themselves, we cannot fail to recognize how much the Athletic Advisory Committee has worked toward the general good and prosperity of the school. The committee itself is composed of men who have to handle several thousands of dollars apiece, and is under the supervision of Mr. Freeman, who has been athletic director for some years. Through the efficiency of this body, the expenses of the different teams have been cut down and large surpluses turned in at the end of the various seasons.

A great improvement has been made in recent years by the introduction of the office of undergraduate treasurer which was first created five years ago. The first two men to hold the position were Hugh Satterlee, Yale's base ball manager, and Alan Fox, the foot ball manager for next fall at Yale. This office is the most important undergraduate financial position in school and has played no small part in cutting down expenses and in setting athletics on a firmer financial footing.

On the whole, then, our present system is the best; we can find no fault in the way in which the different branches of athletics have been managed, and can only feel gratitude toward the committee for the benefits which they have conferred upon the school.

Obituary.

HENRY BOYNTON.

Henry Boynton, P. A. '56, died Thursday morning at his home in West Parish. He had been in feeble health this winter, and recently has been troubled with a weak heart, which probably hastened his death. Deceased was born in West Andover on February 21st, 1833, and obtained his education in the public schools, graduating from Phillips Academy in 1856. His life has been spent here in Andover and at one time he served as one of the town's school committeemen. He was a member of West church, where his funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon. He is survived by two nieces, Miss Clara Boynton, teacher in Fisk University, Nashville, Tenn., and Miss Henrietta Boynton of Lewiston, Me., by a nephew Edgar A. Boynton of Hornellville, N. Y., and by a brother in Minnesota.

Phillipiana.

A. C. Bacon and W. C. Kitchel, both P. A. '00, are at present on the editorial board of the Williams Weekly.

H. P. Erskine and J. A. Hatch, P. A. '99, both took part in the play entitled "The Private Secretary," given Dec. 18, in Syracuse, by the Cap and Bells dramatic club of Williams college.

William McCollough Brown, P. S. '73, Shef. '76, is a civil engineer in Oakland, Maryland.

Three Year Course at Harvard.

The faculty of Harvard University has made a new regulation in regard to students who have been able to fulfill the requirements for the Bachelor of Arts degree in three years. To meet the increased demand for leave of absence during the senior year, the following regulation appears in substance in the new catalogue: "A student completing in three years the requisite number of courses with such grades as may entitle him to graduate "cum laude" may, on petitioning, be recommended for the degree at the end of his third year, and obtain leave of absence until the time when the degrees may actually be conferred.

College Notes.

The financial report of the Yale bicentennial shows that all the expenses of the celebration were met and a surplus of $262 realized. The surplus will be expended on a bronze tablet, marking the site of the first college building at Yale.
