Forum.

Forum held its second regular meeting of the term last night in Forum hall. Under miscellaneous business it was agreed that the committee chosen to arrange for a debate with Exeter see the faculty concerning the proposed Exeter-Andover debate and make their report. It was also agreed that the Philo-Forum debate will take place this term if a debate can be arranged with Exeter; if not, it will take place next term.

The programme for the evening was then taken up. Beers gave, "The Charge of the Light Brigade," as a declamation. Frost followed with a very good extempore on "The Value of a College Education to a man in Business." The debate then followed: Resolved, "that the establishment of free public libraries is a more worthy philanthropy than the endowment of colleges." The affirmative were Moore and F. Taylor; negative, Block and Burch. The vote before the debate was, affirmative 5, negative 3; after the debate; negative 8, affirmative 0. The chair cast his decision with the affirmative. Bardwell and Angell spoke on the affirmative side from the House. After a critique by Angell the meeting adjourned. Attendance 19.

The committee appointed to arrange for the annual banquet, have decided on Saturday, February 5.

Next Friday evening the trials for the Philo-Forum debate will be held in Forum hall at 7 o'clock. Every member is urged to come out and try for the team. Members will kindly be on hand at 6.45 so as to draw for the order in speaking. It has been decided that slips on which is written first speaker, second speaker, etc., will be placed in a hat, and each competitor will draw one which will determine when he will speak. The judges will be: Principal Stearns, President Day of the Theological Seminary and Professor Forbes.

The question will be: Resolved, "that strikes are more beneficial to the laboring classes."

The following rules govern the trials as made by the executive committee:

1. Each speaker is allowed twelve minutes. At the end of eleven minutes he will be notified of time limit.
2. No competitor will be allowed to hear another competitor's speech unless he himself has spoken.
3. No member of the society will be allowed to be present unless he competes.

Basketball Game.

This afternoon the basketball team goes to Durham, N. H., to play New Hampshire College. Our opponents have a very strong team and a hard game is expected.

The line-up: Schildmiller and Kinney, rf; Humphries, lf; Thompson, c; Clough, rg; Doda, lg.

Philo.

The regular meeting of the Philomathean society was held on Friday evening in Society hall. The meeting was opened in the usual way, and the regular business carried on. Goodhue was elected a member. The society then resolved into a Philo Senate. The speeches by the various senators were interesting.

The first bill presented was read by the secretary and spoken upon by several senators. It was, however, lost when a standing vote was taken. The case of Senator Clough of Utah, for bigamy was considered and at length laid on the table. The senate then resolved into the Philomathean society and the meeting adjourned.

The program for next week will be as follows:

Address—H. P. Burt.
Declamation—Haskell.
Topics of the Week—Scott.
Select Reading—C. Clough.
Critique—Pruss.

Debate—Resolved: "That Political parties are necessary for good government."

Inquiry.

The Bible class committee met last Monday evening in Mr. Knapp's room to appoint the leaders of the Bible Class for the coming month. The following were appointed and assigned these subjects: February 3, "Early Life and Boyhood of Paul to the time of his conversion", Monahan; February 10, "From Paul's Conversion to the time of his reappearing in Antioch," Knapp; February 17, "Period between Paul's Conversion and his First Missionary Journey," Kitchel; February 24, Paul's First Missionary Journey to Lystra," Conant.

The first meeting of the Bible class was held last Wednesday evening in Society hall. Wray led the meeting. His subject was "Palestine and the World in the Time of Paul." Much interest was taken in the meeting and the fellows derived a great deal of benefit from it. As this is a new feature which the society is taking up it is looked forward to with much interest.

Next Sunday, Bardwell '04, will lead the regular meeting. His subject will be, "Our Purposes and Ambitions in Life."

Cup from the Boston Yale Club.

Last Thursday Mr. Stearns received from the Boston Yale club, the loving cup concerning which an announcement was made in Chapel last term.

It is a large pewter cup having three handles. On one side is an inscription, and a raised Yale seal. The cup is to be presented to the member of the Senior class who combines in the best manner scholarship and athletic ability. This is a thing well worth striving for, by every member of the class.

Communications.

To the Editors of the Phillipian:

Last week there was found in the old Marland House, a large assortment of books and manuscripts. These were taken to the Archaeological Building, numbering just 1200. They have proved to be a very valuable assortment and contain some very old relics. Among this is a book edited in 1540 and several books date from the beginning of the seventeenth century. There are also twenty-five albums of the graduating classes of the 50's, 60's and 70's, among them a picture of George Peabody the philanthropist, who founded the chair of Sciences which Professor Graves now holds. Besides these there are books written about some of the prominent old Andover athletes, who left school to go to war and then returned to graduate.

These books have been assorted, and the members of the faculty will inspect them, and choose what they think is needful for the students in the particular branch or branches of study which they teach. Mr. Moorehead will look over what is left and take the best and add them to our present library.

Signed,

READING ROOM COMMITTEE.

To the Editors of the Phillipian:

The following changes are to be made in the basket ball schedule:

J. B. WATERWORTH, Manager.

Archaeology Notes.

There have been sixteen wooden posts erected in the present glass cases, and on each is placed a glass slab which holds specimens. By this new arrangement a larger number of specimens can be displayed. This system is modelled after that of the New York Natural History museum.

Dr. Noe of Iowa, has given to the Archaeology department, a large collection of stone axes and flint knives.

Director Moorehead had a very interesting article in the recent issue of the Ohio State Archaeological Quarterly, entitled "Collection and Collectors." Copies of this issue may be procured at Mr. Moorehead's office.

Harvard's New Baseball Diamond.

Harvard will have a new baseball diamond this spring on the old grid-iron. The stands which are to be erected will seat about 5000 people.

Gym Notes.

Classes A and B will practice basketball today at one o'clock.

The leaders' squad will not meet this afternoon on account of open night.

The boxing and fencing teachers will be at the Gym at two o'clock today.

Prof. Gelas has offered to give fencing lessons on Wednesday and Saturday afternoons at five dollars a month, if he can get a class of twelve fellows for the rest of this term. As this is a reasonable offer it is hoped that a number of fellows will take up fencing.

The Gym is open to division basketball teams from 1 to 2 and from 4 to 5, on Wednesday and Saturday afternoons, providing there are no 'varsity games.

Mr. Ross, the physical director at Exeter, will be down next week to see how the gymnasium work is carried on here.

Senior English.

All those who are taking Senior English must hand in their essays by the fifteenth of next month. The best ones will be selected for the Commencement exercises.

Rev. Ernest C. Bartlett, P. A. '88, has moved from Chelmsford to become associate pastor of Bethany Presbyterian church, Philadelphia, Pa.

THE ANDOVER PRESS

Saturday, January 30, 1904.

It seems so far that the fellows have not shown the interest necessary to make the Junior Prom an assured success. Now that the members of the Faculty are in favor of it, it is up to the fellows themselves to support what is hoped to be made hereafter an annual affair.

It is impossible for the committee in charge to see every upper classman therefore every fellow who intends going or is willing to support the Prom should hand his name to one of the committee immediately.

This is the first dance of its kind, that Andover has had and with the proper support will undoubtedly be a great success, as the winter term heretofore has always been thought of as very dull.

The committee must know the exact number, who are going to attend before February 3, so that all arrangements can be made at an early date.

Fellows intending to bring persons from out of town, who will be unable to return the same evening, should see one of the committee so that arrangements can be made for their accommodation.

There are about twenty-five fellows who have either snow shoes or skes in school. It has been suggested by one of the members of the school, that a snow shoeing club be formed. This could be done with very little difficulty, and would afford a good deal of sport to the fellows. It is hoped that some definite action will be taken by the enthusiasts, within the next week. Notice of this will be posted on the bulletin board.

Tonight is the first night of the Gymnastic events, which are to be held in the Gymnasium, for the remainder of the term. Dr. Page has worked that this will prove to be a success in every way, and let every fellow come out and show his appreciation. These events are open to every one and are a great help physically.

E. H. Spaulding, P. A. '01, has been elected manager of the Yale football team, and E. White, P. A. '02, has been elected assistant manager for next season.

Theodore T. Lerch, P. A. '03, is a partner in the firm of Clark & Lerch, dealing in fire extinguishing appliances at 303 Century Building, Cleveland, O.

Albert K. Spencer, P. S. '87, was recently elected treasurer of Cuyahoga County, Ohio, on the republican ticket. His headquarters will be at Cleveland, O.
