FOOT-BALL GAME

Andover Defeats Chelsea A. A. on Brother's Field—Score 12 to 0.

Last Saturday afternoon Andover won the first football game of the season when she defeated the Chelsea A. A. by the score of 12-0.

Both scores were made in the first half. The second half was uneventful, Andover repeatedly putting in new men.

Merritt made the first touchdown of the season by a pretty run of 30 yards. The second touchdown was made by Haines.

The game in detail:

FIRST HALF

The game was called at 3:45. Chelsea won the toss and chose to defend the west goal.

McKay kicked the ball to Chelsea's 20 yard line, and Chelsea advanced the ball 5 yards before Kilpatrick tackled the runner. At this point Chelsea was penalized 5 yards for offside play. On the next play Kilpatrick secured the ball for Andover, on a fumble by the Chelsea quarter-back.

Captain Daly made 4 yards for Andover through Chelsea's right guard. On the next play Andover fumbled the ball, losing 1 yard before the ball was recovered. Kilpatrick punted to Chelsea's 3 yard line.

Chelsea's full-back gained 2 yards through Andover's right guard on the next play. At this point of the game, two minutes were taken out for Andover's left tackle.

Chelsea punted and regained the ball on the 30 yard line. The right half-back attempted an end run, but was unable to gain. Three yards, however, were gained through right tackle.

H. McKay here took Clough's place at center.

Again Chelsea punted to Andover, and Kilpatrick advanced the ball 15 yards to the 45 yard line before he was downed. Favorite made a pretty run around left end, but was recalled on an offside play.

Kilpatrick then punted, and Merritt, regaining the ball for Andover, made a pretty run of 35 yards for the first touchdown. Captain Daly kicked the goal. Score: Andover 6, Chelsea 0.

At this point, Burnham went in for Gunning at tackle. Play was again started when Chelsea punted the ball to Merritt, who was tackled on the 35 yard line. Andover punted to Chelsea's 8 yard line.

Chelsea's full-back advanced the ball 1 yard through right guard. They next attempted a run around left end, but Favorite made a good tackle, allowing no gain. Chelsea was forced to punt.

The kick was a poor one, enabling Haines to secure the ball for the home team 2 yards from Chelsea's goal. Before he could be stopped, he crossed the line for the second touchdown. Again Captain Daly kicked the goal. Score: Andover 12, Chelsea 0.

Mason was substituted for Haines at left end.

R. McKay kicked off to Chelsea's 18 yard line. Chelsea tried an end run, but was stopped by Kilpatrick without a gain. Three yards, however, were gained through Andover's right tackle. Chelsea was forced to punt, and Andover secured the ball on the 45 yard line. Time was then called.

SECOND HALF

In the second half no scores were made.

Notices

Designs for football posters, to advertise the Andover-Exeter football game, are desired by Manager Rafferty as soon as possible. A prize of five dollars will be given to the man whose poster is selected.

Somewhere on Andover Hill, Saturday, September 29th, trip book between Boston and Andover containing about 25 trips. Please return to Mr. Moorehead's office in the Archaeological building.

Trials for the Banjo club will be held in the Archaeology building at 6:45, Thursday evening.

The football squad will report at the "gym" at 2.30.

Pot-Pourri Heelers

At a meeting called last Monday noon, for those intending to try for the Pot-Pourri and Class Book boards, the following men reported:

From the Senior class, A. C. Kluepfel, E. C. Wheeler, A. M. Sidenberg, K. Van Winkle, and F. B. Stokes; and from the Middle class, S. E. Piza, G. W. Parkin.

FIRST MIRROR

To be issued Oct. 24—McLanahan Prizes to be Given for Best Stories.

The Phillips-Andover Mirror will be published this year on the twentieth of every month, and all contributions must be handed in by the tenth. Its greatest need is for short stories or from any length up to 3000 words, and verse, both light and heavy, of any length. Since there are several positions to be filled on the board, all men of even the slightest ability should try for the place.

As a special inducement to contributors the McLanahan prizes are offered for the best articles submitted during the school year. These prizes aggregate fifty dollars, and are so divided that the two lower classes will have an equal chance with the upper classes. The first and second prizes for Junior-Middlers and Juniors are entirely apart from those of the Seniors and Middlers. The amounts are as follows:

For the best article from a Senior or Middler: First prize, $15; second prize, $10.

For the best article from a Junior Middler or Junior: First prize, $15; second prize, $10.

The competition is open to the whole school, and the prizes are awarded by three members of the Faculty at the close of the year.

The first issue will be published on October 20th.

JAMES C. THOMAS, Editor.

Philo

At the meeting of Philo held Monday evening in Society Hall, the officers for the fall term were elected.

President—Kilpatrick.
Vice-president—Hincks.
Secretary—Foster.
Treasurer—Tolles.

A meeting will be held Friday evening at 7 o'clock.

Philo Banquet

Friday night Philo will hold a reception in Society hall, at which Principal Stearns and other members of the Faculty will speak. Philo is the oldest debating society in the school, being founded in 1825. All new men are especially urged to be present. Refreshments will be served, and an enjoyable time is assured.

Inquiry Meeting

The regular meeting of the Society of Inquiry was held last Sunday evening in Society Hall. President S. S. Day led the meeting, talking about the deeper aims of the society. He was assisted by C. W. Hamilton.

Calendar

TO-DAY

2.30—Track practice.
3.00—Football game, with Springfield Training School.
7.00—Orchestra trials in Society Hall.

THURSDAY.

4.00—Football practice.
4.20—Track practice.

FRIDAY.

4.00—Football practice.
4.20—Track practice.
6.45—Mandolin club practice.

The annual fall handicap meet will be held this year on Oct. 24. The trials for the class relay teams will be held at an earlier date; therefore, it is imperative that all who intend to try for the teams should commence training as soon as possible.

The teams will be composed of four men each, and every man will run 1-4 of a mile. Running suits with the proper numerals will be awarded to the different teams, and the winning class team will be given in addition, caps and sweaters, bearing their class numerals.

Those who secure first places in the handicap meet will be presented with cups, and second and third men will receive ribbons.

The four members of the winning relay will also receive cups. As this meet is essentially for the new men, it is hoped that a large number of them will turn out, so that Trainer Peet can see what material he will have to work with during the winter.

If we hope to beat Exeter in the spring, now is the time to begin training, as the value of the fall and winter work cannot be overestimated.

Signed,
CAPTAIN.

Chapel Speakers

The following is a list of those who will conduct the Sunday morning services in the Academy Chapel. This list, however, is subject to change from time to time.

Dec. 9—Dr. Day.
Dec. 16—Dr. Day.
Jan. 6—Prof. Platner.
Jan. 13—Prof. Platner.

At a business meeting of the musical clubs held Monday morning, A. W. Lancashire was elected manager of the clubs.

VERSE CONTEST

Contest to be Held for new Song—Cash Prizes will be Awarded.

Two prizes, first and second, of six ($6.00) dollars and four ($4.00) dollars respectively, will be given to the person or persons writing the best set or sets of original verses appropriate for a school song, to the tunes of either "Cheyenne," or "Down the Field." This contest will close on Monday evening, October 13, at which time all manuscripts must be in the hands of the judge. Contestants may submit any number of sets of verses to either tune, and on any suitable subject. It is suggested, however, that the words be upon athletic subjects, such as football or baseball, especially the former. The judge of this contest will be Mr. Durand, of the faculty, to whom the manuscripts should be submitted. A contestant, in submitting his set or sets of verses, in the event of winning either first or second prize, sells it or them outright to the originators of this contest, to publish, distribute, copyright, or otherwise make public use of as they may see fit. The names of the winners will be announced in Chapel as soon as the contest is decided.

Each manuscript is to be signed with a fictitious name, and is to be accompanied by the name of the author in a sealed envelope bearing the same title as the manuscript.

Reading Room

This year the Reading room has the following periodicals.

Outing, Chautauqua, Review of Reviews, Cosmopolitan, Columbia University, Quarterly, Harper's Monthly, North American Review, Forum, Technical Review, Munsey's, Week's Progress, McClure's, Century, Golf, Outlook, Leslie's, Scribner's, Ainslee's, Everybody's, Atlantic Monthly, Scientific American, Judge, Saturday Evening Post, Sporting News, Youth's Companion, Literary Digest, Leslie's Weekly, Lippincotts, Puck, Life.

It has the following college papers: Harvard Crimson, Yale News, Williams Record, Santee Normal Word Carrier, Exonian, Brown Herald; and the following daily papers: Boston Herald, Boston Globe, Boston Journal, Boston Evening Transcript, New York Sun, New Haven Evening Register, Chicago Record, Springfield Republican.

Andover Songs 1905

Well, here we are on our own field

And we're cutting things loose for fair

The game is done and defeat sealed

For the team of the auburn hair.
And soon we'll ride them on the rail

Making them scream and wail,
A Boola Boo and a Boola Boo
And a Boola Boola Boola Bco.

CHO.—Boola Boola, Boola Boola,
Boola Boola, Boola Boola,
And we'll rough-house dear old Exeter

Till she hollers Boola Boo.
Rah! Rah! Rah!

Andover, Andover, —
Andover, Andover,

And we'll rough-house dear old Exeter,

Till she hollers Boola Boo.

TUNE—"Marsellaise."

Old Andover is champion
And shall hold her place forever,
And the blue shall wave o'er every stand,

As it has in years gone by.
Then stand by the team, boys, to win.

P. A.! P. A.! It's football we play
For victory to-day.

TUNE—"We'll Rally Round the Flag, Boys."

So we gather as of old, boys,
The victory to proclaim,
Waving the banner blue of Phillips
Let us cheer for our heroes
Who bravely won the game,
Bearing the banner blue of Phillips.

CHO.—P. A. boys forever, hurru, ho, hurru,

Down with the red, and up with the blue,

So we gather round P. A. boys,
We gather round P. A.,
Waving the banner blue of Phillips.

Yes, they came from New Hampshire,

Four hundred strong in red,

Cheer altogether! Send the cry
Of AN-DO-VER up to the sky!
Old AN-DO-VER will win the day,

For victory has been hers alway.
Our men are strong, their hearts are true,

O'er other flags whate'er their hue,
They'll place the grand old flag of White and Blue.

They'll place above them all

WELL SHIRTED

This phrase used to have an intellectual significance, as it referred to a particularly happy issue between a student and a classroom exercise. Sometimes the recitation itself was considered well shirted and sometimes the phrase had a more personal application. Applied more literally, the phrase still involves an intellectual occupation, for the choice of colors and designs and materials which are presented in such a stock as is offered in this store this year involves taste and discrimination and artistic judgment.

New Recitation Room

A new recitation room has been added to the basement of the main building to meet the demand of the growing classes. What were formerly the furnace room and janitor's room have been thrown together into one large recitation room. This is similar to the one in the southwest corner of the building, and will be completed as soon as possible.

Dramatic Club Trials

The trials for the Dramatic club will be held Monday evening at seven o'clock, in Academy building. All fellows trying for the club will be asked to recite some poem, or a part of some which play they have learned before. If any one has nothing he can give, he may obtain plays at 22 Morton street.

Amongst the candidates for the Yale 1910 football team are "Ham" Andrus, Tommy Lynn and Fred Murphy of last year's Andover team. Two other Andover men, F. Beinecke and T. Moorehead, are also trying for the team.

The tournament will decide temporarily who will compose the chess team. The team will play with Harvard, M. I. T., and, later in the year, with Exeter. Other games will also be arranged if possible.

The team will be composed of five men, and those who hold the fourth and fifth positions, will always be subject to challenge, until a week before each contest.

New men are especially urged to join, and try for the team.

The following is a complete list of the men who compose the mandolin club:

TO FILL
The ORIGINAL and ONLY GENUINE
CONKLIN'S
SELF-FILLING PEN

Simply dip in the ink, press with the thumb, and the CONKLIN PEN is filled, and ready for instant use. It is simple, convenient, efficient, with no complex mechanism and nothing to get out of order.

The elastic ink reservoir is compressed by the pressure bar under the thumb, and, when released, instantly draws in the ink through the feed channels at the point. The quickly adjusted lock-ring prevents ink from being forced out again. Feeds regularly until the last drop of ink in reservoir is used. Always responds without kick or balk. Cleans itself as easily as it is filled. Fully guaranteed.

If your dealer does not handle the CONKLIN PEN, let us make you our Special Offer to Forward Pen Direct. Full information, with illustrated catalogue, sent upon request.
Sold by dealers everywhere.
