ANDOVER LOSES HARD GAME

Melrose High School Hockey Team Defeats Academy Seven in Even Game, Score 7-5.

In the hardest fought game of the season, Andover met defeat last Wednesday on Brothers' Field, losing to the Melrose High School hockey team by a score of 7 to 5. The teams were very evenly matched and the outcome of the game was very uncertain until well along in the second half when Melrose pulled together and tallied three goals in six minutes. There is no doubt that Melrose had a better all-round team than Andover. Although Melrose was weak on her defense men, she was very strong when it came to advancing the puck and shooting. Her forwards had speed, and almost perfect team work, and shot with strength and accuracy. Had it not been for good blocking and guarding on the part of Andover the score might have been even higher. Andover, who was somewhat crippled by the absence of Captain Martin, put up a very pretty and well fought game, holding down Melrose until the last ten minutes of play when the visiting seven shot the three goals putting them well in the lead. The Andover forwards showed up very well in blocking and breaking up the clock work team of their opponents, and the defense men guarded the goal in most creditable style.

Lee played his usual strong game, shooting two of the five goals and coming in with good defensive work when the goal was endangered. Palmer and Paine also played well for Andover. The game on the whole, was clean and void of unnecessary roughness, although both teams played desperately in the second half when the excitement increased over the tie score.

FIRST HALF

During the first half the teams were about on an even footing, the play first being before one goal and then before the other. Andover scored first, Pfau landing a lucky shot soon after the game started. Melrose came back with wonderful speed and team work and after several tries Jones netted a pretty shot for Melrose.

For a while, Andover seemed to get a little the best of it. The next goal was a result of a fast scrimmage before Melrose's goal, Lee finally pushing the puck into the net. Two minutes later, Palmer raised the puck for another pretty goal, giving Andover three. Melrose then pulled together and

INQUIRY

The meeting of the Society of Inquiry on Sunday evening will be open, and the fellows are cordially invited to come and take part in the discussion. The leader will be W. S. Nute.

In regard to these open meetings, some fellows thing that their duty to the Society is over if they go once in awhile to hear the outside speakers. What the Society needs, to make itself a real force for good in the school life, is a list of members who will stick by it through thick and thin, come to the meetings rain or shine, and show a real active interest in all the work which the Society is trying to accomplish. The Society of Inquiry is not merely a free meeting in the Archaeology Building every Sunday night which a fellow may go to if he hasn't something else to do. It is an active religious society, and as such demands something more than occasional or disinterested support from the fellows of the school. Above all its other needs the Society of Inquiry wants fellows who will feel a personal interest in it as a Society, and who will throw their energies into making it a greater force in the school life, whether they approve of its ways and means or not.

The Academy Track House which has stood for a number of years near the running track was destroyed by fire early this morning. The fire is believed to have been caused by crossed wires but the exact cause has not been ascertained.

Last year the interior of the house was remodeled, and fitted up as an infirmary. Yesterday the house was opened for the first time this winter in order to receive a patient. It is possible that the fire was caused by the stove that was in one of the lower rooms. The exterior of the house was not totally destroyed and it is believed that it can be remodeled.

PHILO

The regular meeting of Philo was held last night in Pearson hall. After President Bennett called the meeting to order the minutes of the previous meeting were read and accepted. A motion was now made and carried to present ex-president Williams with a gavel.

After more minor business had been transacted, Black gave the Topics of the Week. Conant gave a very interesting select reading.

The debate was next begun. The question was as follows: "Resolved, That the death penalty for crime should be abolished."

The vote on the merits of the question went to the negative.

Kugelman opened the debate for the affirmative and was followed by Rockwell who opened for the negative. W. L. Nute and H. H. Nute followed for the affirmative and negative respectively. Kugelman gave a strong rebuttal for the affirmative and Rockwell for the negative. The vote for the advancement of the best arguments went to the affirmative by the vote of 5-4. No one took advantage of the opportunity offered to speak on the question. A motion was made and carried to instruct the Philo representatives to try to get the date for the annual Philo-Forum debate for February 26. President Bennett rendered the critique.

1909 HOCKEY CAPTAIN ELECTED

At the meeting on Thursday, of the 1909 Class Hockey candidates, held in Dr. Page's office. David Edward Meeker from Brooklyn, New York, was chosen captain of the team.

THE OUTSIDE WORLD

FAMOUS FRENCH ACTOR DEAD

Early last Wednesday morning, the world of the dramatists became infinitely poorer by the death of Benoit Constant Coquelin, the famous French comedian. Although sixty-eight and suffering from frequent slight attacks of heart trouble, Coquelin Aine, a name by which he is better known, busied himself with rehearsals of Rostand's new comedy, "Chanticleer", in which he was to play the title role in its initial production this spring.

To most Americans the name of Coquelin is connected with his famous tour of America in 1900-1901 when he starred with Sarah Bernhardt in Rostand's "L'Aiglon". This was the third and last time that the famous French actor visited this country; for he played here in 1886 when on an extended tour, and again in 1893 in a repertoire with Jane Hading.

As Salvini is Italy's greatest actor, as Irving was to the stage in England, and as Richard Mansfield held the pinnacle of dramatic greatness in America, just so was Coquelin to the French stage. Born in 1841, the son of a poor baker in Boulogne, there was nothing in his boyhood training to prepare him for the stage. As a young man he was attracted to Paris, and in 1860 became a student under Regmer at the Conservatoire. Indeed no man was more fitted for Coquelin's teacher than Regmer who built up one of the finest companies the stage has ever known at the Moliere theatre, but the young fellow did not find his profession easy had only won the second prize for comedy upon graduating from the Conservatoire. Constant Coquelin gained, however, a place at the Comedie, and in four years was elected a societaire.

It was as "Gros-Rene" in "Amorous Veration" that this master-comedian made his debut, but it was as Figaro in "Le Mariage de Figaro" that he first gained the favor of all Paris, which remained loyal to him to his death. In 1886 he left the Francaise upon a long tour, and in 1892 he was appointed the head of the Renaissance theatre with which he was connected until he died.

In even such a superficial review of Constant Coquelin's life, as this, a brief sketch of his personal traits is necessary. As a comedian in the true sense of the word, Coquelin was a master of emotions. He recognized that the ambition of a comedian should not be satisfied by creating merriment, but realized the feelings of an audience to be a harp on which the actor should make the strings of sadness vibrate as sweetly as the joyful. But in no way could he be taken for a tragedian: his eyes were brilliant and flashing; his mouth wide and strong; his nose the tilting, impudent nose of a natural humorist; and his voice, which he kept well under control, was melodious and vibrant.

GOV. GILLETT WARNS STATE LEGISLATURE

On Wednesday last, Gov. James N. Gillett of California sent a special message to the Legislature at Sacramento, recommending an appropriation for a census in the state. His idea is to in this way ascertain the number of Japanese in California, the number classified as laborers, those classed as farmers, and the acreage owned and leased by the latter division. Specific information could thus be gathered with which to compile a detailed and accurate report of the Japanese interests in California, to be sent to President Roosevelt. At the same time, Gov. Gillett definitely warns the Legislature against passing anti-Japanese bills.

The right to prohibit immigration is vested only in the President of the United States and Congress. Any interference in this prerogative by the State of California would, accordingly, be futile in all but precipitating international annoyance. The Japanese minister at Washington has already stated that any legislation in California prejudicial to the present amicable relations between his country and ours, would place his nation in an embarrassing position. Gov. Gillett has received word by telegraph that President Roosevelt is writing him a letter, which is assumed to bear upon the present controversy, and it is hoped that it will clear up certain points in the negotiations between Japan and the United States.

HARVARD DEFEATS CANADIANS

In a fast hockey game in the Stadium on Wednesday, Harvard won from Laval College hockey team of Montreal by the score of 3-0.

Both teams played well and the game was not won until late in the second half when Harvard scored three goals within six minutes of play.

In the first period honors were even, the puck being rushed up and down the rink by the forwards of the two teams and the shooting was poor. The game was somewhat rough, two Canadian and one Harvard player being retired from the rink for short periods, on this account.

The Canadian team was outplayed throughout the game, especially in team play in which they were very weak.

1910 DEFEATS SENIORS

On Wednesday afternoon the Middle basketball team administered a crushing defeat to the Seniors by the score of 20-7. Although the 1910 team was at no time in danger of losing the game, nevertheless they had to work for every point which they made. The Seniors played hard but were playing against a better team. All of the 1910 team played well, although Stewart and Smith excelled, especially in shooting. For 1909 Schofield was easily the best man, his shooting being exceptionally good. As a whole the game was clean and free from the roughness which so frequently prevails among the class contests.

FIRST HALF

The game started off at a fast clip, Schofield scoring first on a pass from Hunt. Stewart and Takamine both caged pretty baskets after him, placing the 1910 team in the lead. On two successive tries Reilly caged two fouls when the Seniors had held. Stewart now shot his second basket of the period. Smith tallied again for 1910 and the half ended with the score 10-2 in favor of the Middlers.

SECOND HALF

Schofield again scored the first point of the half after some clever team play on the part of the Seniors. Reilly failed on a free shot. Smith caged his second basket of the game and Stewart followed with another. The Senior team now got together and Waterbury scored the prettiest goal of the game on a long-shot from the side line. Schofield failed to score on a foul. Reilly tallied again for 1910 and Stewart followed. Reilly again scored, this time, it was an exceptionally good effort. Reilly now failed to score on a foul, as did Schofield a moment later. Both sides played hard until the end and although both goals were threatened the score remained the same. The result at the end of the game was 20-7 in favor of the Middlers.

The line-up:—

1910	1909
J. Takamine, l.f.	r.g., Burdett
R. R. Smith, r.f.	l.g., Sheldon
Reilly, c.	c., Hunt
Stewart, r.g.	l.f., Schofield
Coffin, l.g.	r.f., Waterbury

Goals—Stewart, 4; Reilly, 2; Smith, 2; Schofield, 2; Waterbury; Takamine.

Goals from fouls—Reilly, 2; Schofield.

Referee—J. Reilly.

Time—Two 10 minute periods.

ARCHAEOLOGY NOTE

On January 12th the Curator delivered a lecture at Mount Morris, New York, before the Livingston County Historical Society on the Cliff Dwellers. About 250 attended the lecture. The latter part of the same week he went to Washington to attend to his duties as one of the Indian Commissioners.

JUNIOR MIDDLES WIN

The 1911 Class Basketball team won from 1912 on Wednesday by the score of 12-4. The Juniors did well, playing against a heavier and more experienced team.

In the first half, Denman scored the first goal for 1911. Batchelder followed with another, after some clever passing. At this point Hathaway scored first for 1912. Whittemore followed with another basket for 1911 and caged another directly. This ended the scoring for the first half. Score, 8-2 in favor of 1911.

In the second period Whittemore taking the ball on the face off scored quickly for 1911. He scored again on a foul when 1912 held. Smith brought the score of 1912 up to 4 on a pretty basket from the side. Whittemore ended the scoring of the game by caging another foul. Score at the end of the game 12-4, 1911 leading.

The line-up:—

1911	1912
Batchelder, l.g.	r.f., Hathaway (Hopkins)
Takamine, r.g.	l.f., Broomfield
Denman, c.	c., VanBrocklin
Whittemore, l.f.	r.g., Hopwood
Otley, r.f.	l.g., Axt, Latour

Goals—Denman, Batchelder, Whittemore, 3; Smith, Hathaway. Goals from fouls—Whittemore, 2.

Referee—Reilly.

Time—Two 10 minute halves.

THE ANDOVER PRESS

Saturday, January 30, 1909

Where is the Student Council? Five years ago an administrative organization of this name was founded for the purpose of governing the affairs of the student body. This organization was given practically all control of undergraduate interests, and for a time exerted a great influence in the school, in many instances proving of great service in settling differences between the faculty and the students, rectifying errors of both bodies, and suggesting and seeing to the carrying out of needed improvements.

Unfortunately during the last two years, the members of the Council have seen fit to allow it to lose much of its dignity, influence, and prestige. It is necessary to remind the members that they have a solemn duty to perform and, although it has not been the case during the last two years, that they may some day be face to face with a difficult problem, which they must be prepared to meet. The welfare of the undergraduate body is in their hands, and they must make their office to see that some of the numerous suggestions which have been brought up are looked into.

Article VI. of the constitution of the Student Council says, "The Council shall hold at least one meeting each term, and special meetings at the call of the president". Last year by the consent of the members it was agreed to follow the custom which had hitherto existed and to hold meetings the first Monday of every month. To the best of the PHILLIPIAN's knowledge, no meetings whatsoever have been held, contrary to both constitution and custom.

If this organization is to continue to exist, as it certainly should, being an important factor to the interests of the school, its members must get busy, and do it now.

FORUM

The regular meeting of Forum was held in the lecture room of the Archaeology building, Friday night. A large number of the members were present and a most interesting program was given.

The Topics of the Week were given by Gould. He discussed foreign transactions, political issues and gave a brief athletic review.

P. S. Stewart gave the select reading, choosing Stevenson's "Travels with a Donkey".

The extempore has generally been omitted but last night Fletcher was prepared with a very interesting talk, speaking of President Roosevelt's attitude toward the present Chinese troubles. This subject was very appropriate, coming in well with the debate.

The question for debate was: "Resolved, That the United States Government should not discriminate between immigrants from China and those from other countries." A vote was taken before the debate, resulting in favor of the affirmative. Mann and Bell defended the affirmative, arguing on the basis that the Chinese are not mixing with the Americans and are doing no harm and that they fill many positions which help out toward the good of the United States. Colvin and Whipple argued that the Chinese are an immoral nation and that they work for low wages, thus harming the poor man and aiding the rich.

Webster rendered the critique, taking up each speaker individually. Webster gave his decision to the negative on grounds of its clean cut argument.

As there was no other business the meeting was then adjourned.

NOTICE

Dr. Page wishes to issue another call for men desirous of taking boxing lessons.

Ultimately it is hoped that there may be some class contests but to accomplish this it is necessary that three or four men, in addition to those who are already out, report from each class.

INQUIRY BOOKLET

The Society of Inquiry is now distributing throughout the school copies of the Seventy-fifth Anniversary booklet. The booklet contains the exercises of the Seventy-fifth anniversary of the Society held last June, a "Foreward" by Robert E. Speer, and the Constitution of the Society. The exercises include the historical address by Dr. Dana of Exeter, and two other addresses, "Three Services of Inquiry", and "Present Day Claims of Inquiry", the latter by Principal Stearns. The book as a whole gives a very good idea of what Inquiry has been in the past—the transformations through which it has come in the seventy-five years of its history,—what it is, and the place it hopes to hold in the school life. The nature of the work which the Society is trying to do is clearly brought out. It is hoped that the book will be well distributed throughout the school, and that it will be appreciated as a clear statement and summing up of the life—past and present—of the Society of Inquiry. The booklet may be obtained at any time from the officers of the Society, or at the meeting Sunday night.

COMMUNICATION

To the Editors of the Phillipian—

We all appreciated Dr. Page's highly instructive and helpful lecture on hygiene not long ago, and, following his advice, we have since then sought diligently the preservation of our eyesight. Repeated appeals for better light in Pearson Room H have however apparently not been to the proper authorities, and, accordingly, we have resorted to the popular method of registering "kicks". Recent experiments have proved conclusively that two lights in the aforesaid room are not equal in power to a parlor match and can barely cause a shadow. How then, is it possible for one to make a brilliant recitation under such conditions? The bad lighting not only makes the recitation a hardship, but so affects the eyes and head that evening study is well nigh impossible, and we are forced to rise with "rosy-fingered Aurora".

Hoping for results from our well-meant appeal, we wait.

WITH THE COLLEGES

Ralph Baker, the runner who scored for Swarthmore in the intercollegiate half mile races in 1906 and 1907, is in Pennsylvania and has begun to train. Baker is in his second year in Penn. law school. He will be a very useful man for the Red and Blue.

The management of "Cap and Bells", the Williams Dramatic Association, is planning a Washington's Birthday trip to Portland, Me., and other cities in its vicinity.

The University Minnesota will have steel stands put on its athletic field. This will cost $40,000. Most of this money is now at hand.

The Naval Academy will have four dual meets next spring. Besides Pennsylvania on May 15 and Princeton on May 22, Columbia and John Hopkins will be met. These dates have not yet been fixed. This is a very ambitious line for the Navy.

The Brown Herald is making a request for lectures by members of the faculty who are noted in various lines, for the purpose of preventing over-specialization among the students.

At the dinner recently held in Orange, N. J. by the Yale Association, President Hadley of Yale University gave a most interesting talk on "Conceptions of University Training and their Application in America."

The Trustees of Cornell University met last Saturday in New York. Several important appointments to the college faculty were made. The trustees were afterward entertained at dinner by one of their number. Among the speakers at the dinner was Andrew Carnegie.

Trinity College will hold the annual Junior Promenade on Monday evening, February 8.

The Dartmouth Alumni Association held its forty-fourth annual reunion last Friday evening at the Hotel Somerset. Among the speakers were President Eliot of Harvard and President Tucker of Dartmouth.

Princeton defeated Yale in basketball last Friday in Princeton, by the score of 40 to 28. The Princeton team work was vastly superior to that of Yale. The score at the end of the first half was 19 to 14 in favor of the home team.

The first number of the Williams Alumni Magazine will probably appear about Feb. 15. Because of postal regulations, it will be impossible to issue the review as an insert to the Williams Record, and it will therefore appear as a separate publication.

Dartmouth will make no entries in the B. A. A. games, this year, because the date interferes with the mid-year examinations.

Princeton men are to raise $5000 for a surgical launch as a memorial of Andrew J McCosh. It is to be used by Grenfell in his work in Labrador.

The report of the athletic treasurer at Princeton has been published. Football and baseball gained money, but the other sports lost.

Leland Stanford University has recently founded a graduate school of law.

Illinois Wesleyan has completed a $100000 endowment fund. Carnegie contributed $30000, the city of Bloomington $40000, and outsiders $30000.

The Italian relief fund at Princeton amounts to about $200.

Cornell has enrolled in her catalogue a total of 4,999 students—an increase of 359 over last year.

A bequest of $500,000 to the Wharton School of finance and Commerce of the University of Pennsylvania has been revoked. It is supposed that the donor thought the original endowment of $529,425 to be sufficient for the needs of the school.

Fourteen college relay teams have been entered for the A.A.A. meet February 6.

The "non-fraternity" men of Tufts have organized, and taken steps for a club house. They have $3,000 pledged already.

The annual report of the treasurer of Princeton University for the year 1907-8 shows gifts aggregating nearly $700,000. This does not include gifts of buildings, such as the Sage dormitory and Palmer physical laboratory.

The new Yale Alumni Association of New Haven will give a banquet on March 10, when the members will perfect a permanent organization, adopt a constitution and by-laws and elect officers. The present intention is to give a banquet and possibly one or two informal smokers each year.

The Amherst Musical Association is planning to give a two act musical comedy entitled "The Minstrels" in place of the minstrel show that was originally announced. The comedy will be presented on March 11.

The Amherst Alumni Association of Philadelphia held its annual meeting at the Hotel Walton Philadelphia.

HARVARD BASEBALL SCHEDULE

The Harvard baseball schedule has been shortened to twenty-six games for the season of 1909. This is owing to the wishes of the authorities at Harvard to have the schedules of the various athletic organizations shortened. The team will have its early practice at Charlottesville where two games will be played with the University of Virginia. There will be but one game with Dartmouth, and the University of Vermont will not play Harvard this year. Andover and Exeter are the only preparatory schools on the schedule, each having one game, with a possible second game for Exeter. The Yale series starts at Cambridge June 24th and in case of a tie will end at New York on July 3rd.

The schedule:

April 21—University of Va. at Charlottesville.
April 23—University of Va. at Charlottesville.
April 24—Georgetown Univ., at Washington.
April 27—Bates at Cambridge.
May 1—Fordham at Cambridge.
May 5—Phillips Andover at Cambridge.
May 8—Holy Cross at Worcester.
May 12—Amherst at Cambridge.
May 15—Princeton at Cambridge.
May 19—Brown at Providence.
May 22—Princeton at Princeton.
May 26—Princeton at New York (in case of a tie), or Phillips Exeter at Cambridge.
May 29—Cornell at Ithaca.
June 2—Brown at Cambridge.
June 3—Williams at Cambridge.
June 5—Dartmouth at Cambridge.
June 10—Holy Cross at Cambridge.
June 12—Cornell at Cambridge.
June 16—Colby at Cambridge.
June 19—Penn. State College at Cambridge.
June 24—Yale at Cambridge.
June 29—Yale at New Haven.
July 3—Yale at New York (in case of a tie.)

MIDDLERS VS. 1911

1910 will meet the Junior Middler basketball team tonight. These are the two undefeated teams thus far and a fast, hard fought game may be unexpected. The chances favor the Middlers, inasmuch as they are more experienced having won from both the Juniors and Seniors.

The game will take place at 7.15 and the men will report dressed for play at 7.00. The line-up will be as follows:

1910	1911
R. R. Smith, r.f.	I.g., Batchelder
J. Takamine, l.f.	r.g., Takamine
Reilly, c.	c., Denman
Coffin, r.g.	l.f., Whittemore
Stewart, l.g.	r.f., Otley

YALE BASEBALL SCHEDULE

The Yale baseball team will resume its southern trip the coming season, and will go south on the 1st of April which is the beginning of the Easter vacation. While in the south seven games will be played, three of these being with the New York Nationals. There are thirty-three games in all, seven more than Harvard has arranged. Andover is the only preparatory school which has been successful in securing a game with the New Haven nine. Fred Murphy who captained the Andover baseball nine three years ago will lead the Yale team and there will be a number of old Andover men on the team. The schedule follows:

April 1—Georgetown at Washington.
April 3—University of Virginia at Norfolk.
April 5—Norfolk League club at Norfolk.
April 6—New York Nationals at Norfolk.
April 8—Norfolk League at Norfolk.
April 10—New York Nationals at Norfolk.
April 14—Hartford league at Hartford.
April 17—Trinity at New Haven.
April 21—Fordham at New Haven.
April 22—Tufts at New Haven.
April 24—Cornell at Ithaca.
April 28—West Point at West Point.
May 1—Pennsylvania at New Haven.
May 5—Brown at New Haven.
May 7—University of Virginia at New Haven.
May 8—Andover at New Haven.
May 12—Williams at New Haven.
May 13—Wesleyan at New Haven.
May 15—Pennsylvania at New Haven.
May 19—Amherst at New Haven.
May 20—Syracuse at New Haven.
May 22—Holy Cross at Worcester.
May 26—University of Vermont at New Haven.
May 29—Columbia at New York.
May 31—Brown at Providence.
June 2—Holy Cross at New Haven.
June 5—Princeton at New Haven.
June 8—Dartmouth at New Haven.
June 12—Princeton at Princeton.
June 19—Cornell at New Haven.
June 22—Princeton at New York in case of a tie.
June 24—Harvard at Cambridge.
June 29—Harvard at New Haven.
July 3—Harvard at New York in case of a tie.

raised their score, Nickerson and Watermaker carrying the puck the full length of the rink, the latter landing it safely with a pretty shot. The puck was faced off again and Watermaker repeated his performance after a hard scrimmage in front of Andover's goal. Toward the end of the half Lee came to the rescue with another goal for Andover, allowing them to leave the rink with one goal to the good.

SECOND HALF

The second half was even more exciting than the first, Melrose coming back with renewed speed and accuracy. After five minutes of hard scrimmaging, Nickerson caged the puck in the net, again tying the score.

From that point on they outplayed Andover in every way, C. McDonald scoring twice and Nickerson once. With Melrose three goals ahead, Andover made a sudden and effective spurt, Paine landing the rubber for a pretty goal before Melrose knew what had happened. The remainder of the half was a hard fight, no more scoring being done, although both sides raised some very pretty shots. Gard replaced Baldwin, at point, during the last few minutes of play.

The Medico-Chirurgical College of Philadelphia

HAS FOUR DEPARTMENTS:

Medicine, Dentistry, Pharmacy and Pharmaceutic Chemistry

The instruction in each is thoroughly practical, laboratory work, ward work and bedside teaching receiving particular attention. All courses are carefully graded, and free quizzes by professors and trained instructors, clinical conferences and modern seminar methods are special features.

All students are accorded the same college privileges and those in Medicine and Dentistry have the advantage of abundant clinical material, as the College has its own Hospital and the largest and finest clinical amphitheatre in the world. Students in Pharmacy are trained to fill lucrative commercial positions, and those in Pharmaceutic Chemistry for the many openings created by the new Pure Food and Drug Laws.

Address the Dean of the Department in which you are interested for an illustrated announcement describing courses in full and containing information as to requirements, fees, etc.
