A CLOSE GAME

Bates Wins from Andover 4 to 3.
Thompson Pitches Good Game.
Costly Errors.

Andover was defeated by Bates last Wednesday, on Brothers' Field, in a very close and interesting game, the score being 4-3. Most of the scoring on Bates' part was done through Andover's errors, as none of the runs were earned runs. Thompson pitched the entire game for Andover and did very creditable work.

Harriman, the pitcher for Bates, played very good ball, and it was only occasionally that Andover managed to meet his delivery. Snell, however, managed to get a three-bagger which was very advantageous to Andover.

Andover's fielding showed signs of weakening at times, since it was in this way that the opponents secured half of their scores. L. E. Thompson replaced Sherman in right field at the beginning of the sixth inning, and for the visitors Damon took Clason's place in right field.

The game in detail:

The game began promptly at three o'clock when Lamorey, the first man up, was passed. Then Dorman fouled out to Snell. Lamorey got to third on Stone's two-bagger. He was caught here, however, Pfau to Reilly. Before Keeney struck out, Stone managed to come in from second base on a wild pitch, and scored.

In Andover's half, with two down, Snell knocked a three base hit toward right field. He later scored on Keeney's error which likewise let Sherman to first. L. Burdett then fanned.

Neither team got a man beyond first until the fourth inning, when after Stone singled and was caught at first Keeney, got all the way to third on an error; after Cole had flied out to Pfau, an error on Snell's part at the plate, allowing Keeney to score. The next man also flied out to Pfau. In Andover's half of this inning, Bennett secured a hit but it was of no use for there were two down and Reynolds, the next man up, flied to Carroll.

In the next inning, however, Dorman, after securing a safe hit, took second on E. Burdett's error which also gave Stone his base. Each was advanced a base on Keeney's attempt to sacrifice. Dorman then scored on Cole's single. On the next play Stone also scored.

Andover rallied again in her half of this inning. Pfau walked and

PRIZE SPEAKING CONTEST

Annual Means Essays Delivered Wednesday Night in Stone Chapel. G.S. Torrey First Prize Winner.

The forty-second annual speaking of original compositions was held last Wednesday evening in the Stone Chapel. The first prize, $20, was awarded to G. Safford Torrey, '09; the second prize, $12, to William L. Nute, '10; the third prize, $8, to Herbert E. Pickett. A maximum credit of sixty-six and two-thirds per cent. was given for the literary value of the essay, and a maximum credit of thirty-three and one-third per cent. for the delivery.

The contest brought out some excellent compositions which were well delivered. Great credit is due not only to the prize winners but also to all who competed.

The program is given below:

1. The Advantages and Dangers to the United States of a Powerful Navy.

Herbert Elmer Pickett,
Worcester, N. Y.

2. Translation from Homer's Iliad. Book 6, Lines 390-502.

David Ernst Adams,

9. The Preservation of the American Forest.

Francis C. Hall, Brookline, Mass.

10. Andover Witchcraft,

William L. Nute, St. Louis, Mo.

*Willyme Forbes Woodward, of Denver, Col., was unable to compete because of illness.

The committee of award were: Principal H. H. Horne, Lawrence High School; Rev. Frank S. Hunnewell, of Reading; Walter S. Parker, Assistant Superintendent of Schools in Boston.

Pickett outlined the advantages and the dangers to the country of a powerful navy, stating that in his opinion the advantages far out-

Andover-Exeter Debate

John Nichols Donovan of Bellingham, Wash., has been chosen in the place of W. F. Woodward, as alternate for the Academy debating team which is to debate against Exeter. Woodward has been obliged to resign because of ill health. Donovan is a very capable man to fill the vacancy.

The date for the debate with Exeter has been chosen and accepted by both sides. It will take place at Andover on the twenty-ninth of May.

Princeton 1912 Defeats Yale 1912

In the Yale Freshmen-Princeton track meet last Saturday, Gardner and Hasbrook, who were both on last-year's Andover team, won points for Yale. Gardner won the pole vault at 11 feet 6 inches, while Hasbrook tied for first in the high jump at 5 feet 9
1-2 inches. The score was 57 1-2
46 1-2 in favor of Princeton Freshmen.

Forum

The regular meeting of Forum
was held last night at the Archaeology Building. The amended constitution was read and accepted by the society. Browne next gave the Select Reading. He chose for his subject a selection from Kipling,
"Bertram and Bimi". This was well read and very interesting.
Schoelkopf then gave the Topics of the Week. Timbie spoke extemporaneously on the Y. M. C. A.
work in Massachusetts.

The question for debate was,
"Resolved, that every student averaging eighty per cent. in a subject
throughout the term should be exempt from the regular examination". Pickett was the leader of the affirmative assisted by Gould.
The negative was upheld by J.
Fletcher with Pratt as assistant.
Mr. Dominovitch gave a very interesting critique. He gave his decision in favor of the negative.

WITH THE COLLEGES

A Wrestling club is being formed at Harvard.

Exeter won the Interscholastic Tennis Championship Saturday.

R. A. Taft, '10, has been elected President of the Yale Debating Association for the coming year.

W. D. Allen, '11, broke the pole-vault record of M. I. T last Saturday, vaulting 11 feet, 4 1-4 in.

A School Hymn has been written at Hotchkiss. The author's name will be revealed at the Commencement exercises.

The inauguration of Professor Abbott Laurence Lowell as President of Harvard University, will take place on October 6 and 7.

The Harvard Freshmen defeated

Exeter last Wednesday 4-2. Harvard secured most of her runs on Exeter's errors, while the latter proved too slow at base running.

At the junior prom. held at Kentucky this year someone obtained access to the refreshment booth and surreptitiously doped the punch with ipecac and croton oil. However, no fatalities followed.

Workmen excavating for a new freshman dormitory at Princeton have uncovered thirty-two skeletons. It seems that the part of the campus selected for the new building was the site of an ancient burial ground.

Baron Takahira, the Japanese ambassador to the United States, was a guest of honor at the Harvard Cosmopolitan Club last Wednesday night. Baron Takahira is one of Andover's many distinguished alumni, being a member of the class of Investigations at Minnesota indicate that the more education a student gets the worse he becomes, for data collected at that institution show that seniors drink and smoke more than undergraduates. From the same source statistics show most co-eds desire matrimony as their life work.

There has been much interest shown in the outcome of the Oval Fence issue at Yale. For several weeks, the Yale News has printed communications and editorials upon the question. Last Wednesday the Junior class voted on the matter, which was to decide whether the Seniors should hereafter concentrate in Berkeley Oval. The vote resulted 193 to 82 against the movement.

Inquiry Speaker

The speaker at Inquiry tomorrow evening will be Mr. E. C. Mercer of New York.

Mr. Mercer is a member of one of the most prominent families of Georgia. He is a son of a Federal Judge and a nephew of Chester A. Arthur.

For the last eighteen months he has devoted himself primarily to work among the colleges, having visited sixty per cent. of all large institutions in the U. S. He has just completed a very successful campaign in most of the large colleges and universities in the west and along the Pacific coast. He comes here directly from campaigns at Illinois, Yale, Princeton, University of Pennsylvania, Nebraska and Northwestern.

The popularity and usefulness of Mr. Mercer's work is attested by the many demands for his time and the repetition of visits he is making to colleges and universities.

Sunday Speaker

The preacher next Sunday will be Rev. Charles O. Day, former president of the Andover Theological Seminary. While in Andover, Dr. Day was intimately associated with the life of the school and enjoyed great popularity among the fellows. He will be heartily welcomed back by his many Andover friends.

weighed the dangers.

Adams gave an excellent translation in blank verse of the famous scene between Hector and Andromache before the gates of Troy, in the sixth book of the Iliad.

Cox told the very interesting story of Sigfried, well written and excellently delivered.

Freeman gave a very instructive talk on "The Preservation of the American Forest". He spoke of the waste and lack of care which has prevailed until recently, and of the need of better laws for the protecting of the forests.

In his essay, Raymond gave three important instances when Archaeology had helped to prove facts in history: the first, the finding of the Rossetta Stone in Egypt; the second, the excavations at Babylon; and the third, the work of Dr. Schliemann at the ancient city of Troy.

Brush told of the fates of several people who had been convicted of witchcraft at Andover during the year 1692. His essay was well delivered and interesting.

Torrey gave a brief sketch of the many forms of city government which have been tried without success. He showed that city government by commissions is the most successful and efficient system. He instanced the growing number of cities which have adopted this form of government. His ideas were clearly expressed and well delivered.

Hall next spoke of the losses of our timber, and the fact that our forests could be made to pay large revenues to the country. He said that we have sufficient lumber for the present, but that we must look out for the future generations.

Nute's essay was forcefully rendered and full of interest. He spoke of the origin of witchcraft, the reasons why so many confessed, and the foolishness of the proofs brought against the accused.

Middlers Win

Yesterday the class of 1911 went down to defeat at the hands of the Middlers by a score of 14 to 1. 1911 made many errors, especially in the first inning when they let in nine runs. The feature of the game was a home run made by Harlow in the fourth inning. Von Seggern also played good ball for 1911. Look and Martin were the stars for the Middlers, Look making several sensational catches in the field. The 1910 battery was very effective, giving but a few well scattered hits. The catching for 1911 was very weak, accounting for several of the runs.

The following was the line-up:

Philo

Philo held its regular meeting last Friday night in Pearson Hall. After a short business meeting, the evening's program was carried out. The Topics of the Week were rendered by Freyfogle with great success. Thwing gave a select reading from Alfred Lord Tennyson's Poems. The question for debate was: "Resolved, that any bona fide college student 21 years of age, and having completed one year's work in good standing, should be allowed to represent in athletics the institution at which such work has been done, regardless of any compensation he may previously have received for his athletic ability." Owing to Williams' inability to attend the meeting, Thomas consented to take his part. Rickard and Kugleman rebutted for their respective sides.

The house gave the decision in favor of the negative and the chair's decision appealed. Mr. Stackpole gave the critique, which was very useful and beneficial to the society.

Cheever House Defeated

Last Thursday an exciting game was played between the well known Cheever House team and the Bush League. The Cheever House team showed a surprising capacity for making errors. They were also good at manipulating the score at the end of each inning. The final score was 9-5 in favor of the Bush League.

Seniors Win

Last Friday 1909 defeated 1912 in a hotly contested game by a score of 5 to 4. Schofield pitched for the Seniors and was relieved by Beaman in the fourth inning. Broomfield pitched well for Juniors. Both sides made many errors, but several good plays balanced these to some extent. Needham played well at short and second, and Lanius played his usual steady game. Arnold and Broomfield played good ball for their team.

took second when Reilly singled out. E. Burdett got his base on the right fielder's error, which also allowed him second. Snell then brought him in by a safe hit over third base. In the meantime, Pfau scored on Clason's error.

There was no more scoring after this, although Andover came very near it in the seventh when Pfau advanced Reynolds to second with a single. Reilly secured first on a fielder's choice but Reynolds was caught at third, Harriman to Lamorey. In the last inning neither team was able to do any scoring nor to get a man to first, leaving the final score 4-3 in favor of Bates.

TEAM GREATLY STRENGTHENED...

When CROSS first lined up his team, it was a trifle weak. Could now and then make only an end play. But with GOOD COAL and careful drivers, he is now doing some brilliant centre plays. For Coal see him.
