ANDOVER WINS

Easily Outclasses Visiting Cross-Country Teams in First Dual Meet. Hayes a Close Winner

The Andover Cross Country team defeated the teams of the Yale and Dartmouth freshmen in the race Friday afternoon. Andover completely outclassed the other teams, securing the first two places and winning the meet by a large margin. The feature of the race was the contest for first place between Hayes and Gould, the former winning by less than a foot. The race was three times around the regular course, making a total distance of slightly less than four miles.

The race started from the gymnasium at 2.45 with twenty-three contestants. Cross, of Yale, immediately sprung into the lead. He was closely followed by Gould, with Hayes slightly behind. The first round was covered in 7 minutes and 32 seconds, Gould and Hayes being side by side, with Cross of Yale a yard behind. Behind them came Ball, French, Colgate and Seymour in the order named, with the rest strung out.

At the end of the second lap, Gould and Hayes were again side by side in the lead, with Cross and Ball close behind and the rest about 200 yards behind. Time, 7 minutes 16 seconds.

The finish was very exciting. Gould and Hayes entered Brothers Field together and sprinted toward the finish line. When near the line, Hayes passed Gould, and finished less than a foot ahead. Total time, 24 minutes 37 seconds. The men finished in the following order: Hayes, Andover; Gould, Andover; Ball, Dartmouth; Cross, Yale; Colgate, Yale; McCrone, Andover; Bidwell, Dartmouth; P. Hayes, Andover; French, Dartmouth; Ferguson, Yale; Nute, An-

Hockey Manager Candidates

The following men are canvassing the school for subscriptions for er, Thayer, Ottley, Nicholson, Sheffield. The subscriptions will be exchanged for season tickets. Several large games are scheduled for this year, and everyone should give as much as they are able.

The hockey management expects to build several rinks on Brothers Field as was done last year. This year, in addition to the Varsity rinks, the management will probably construct rinks for the use of the class teams, provided the subscriptions amount to enough.

NEW YALE REQUIREMENTS

The Yale academic faculty on Thursday last adopted a new plan relating to admission requirements that will prove of great interest to all those who are looking to Yale as their future college. Hereafter credit will be granted for single subjects for admission. Formerly five subjects were required for credit. This step will be retroactive so far as examinations taken last June and September are concerned. Candidates who in either or both of these examinations passed individual subjects, but not enough to secure preliminary lists, will be granted certificates crediting them with the number of subjects passed.

To prevent abuses under this new system and especially to guard against the evil of summer tutoring it has been further decided to permit no candidates to offer examinations in September in subjects in which they failed to secure in June the recommendation of their regular schools.

Under this new plan short preliminary lists may be secured by candidates at the end of their Junior Middle year in the Academy, and it will no longer be necessary to repeat during the school year individual subjects once passed for college, but for which credits could not be given because the total number passed fell below the number required for a preliminary list.

New Chinese Students

On Thursday last Principal Stearns was called to Boston to meet and bring to Andover five Chinese students, who are to enter the school at this time. These boys are part of the delegation of students sent by the Chinese government to America for educational purposes. It will be recalled that the Chinese government not long ago decided to make use of the Boxer indemnity money returned by the United States for the purpose of educating selected Chinese students in the higher institutions of learning in this country. The boys who have just entered the Academy belong to this class and have been carefully selected through qualifying examinations at home. After completing the work of the year in the school they will enter the leading colleges and scientific schools of the middle west chiefly.

The delegation is in charge of Mr. Long Kaison, a graduate of Yale. Mr. Long expects to pass several days in Andover next week.

YALE VS. HARVARD

Yale and Harvard meet in the Stadium this afternoon on Soldier's field in the big game of the season. Neither team has yet used its full strength, and today's game will show their relative abilities as no comparative scores can.

This year Yale has a team of excellent individual players, who have a knack for being in the right place to get a forward pass, or, if necessary, recover a fumble. Philbin is the man most feared by Harvard, for when he gets away no one on their team can catch him. He is also unusually good at dodging through the opposing players when running back kicks. With such a team, Yale will undoubtedly either use open plays or try a kicking game.

Harvard's eleven is composed, with a few exceptions, of men of good average ability. As she is almost certain to be outclassed in open play, Harvard will put her reliance upon her excellent team work and use line plunges to advance the ball. The probable lineup will be as follows:

Yale	Harvard
Kilpatrick, le.	le. Smith
Hobbs, lt.	lt. McKay
Andrus, lg.	lg. L. Withington
Cooney, c.	c. P. Withington
Goebel, rg.	rg. Fisher
Lilley, rt.	rt. Fish (Capt.)
Savage, re.	re. Browne
Howe, pb.	qb. O'Flaherty
Philbin, lhb.	lhb. Corbett
Coy, (Capt.) fb.	fb. Minot
Murphy, rhb.	rhb. Leslie

Philo

The regular meeting of Philo was held Friday evening in Pearson hall. Hawley began the literary program by rendering the topics of the week. J. H. Nute followed with a select reading, "The Way Melindy Sings." The question for debate was, "Resolved, That the recently defeated state constitutional amendment of Maryland would have worked for the betterment of the state." A vote of the house upon the merits of the question, taken before the debate favored the affirmative. For the affirmative, the disputants were Thompkins, leader; Price, assistant. The supporters of the negative were W. L. Nute, leader; Rice assistant. On the vote of the house upon the merits of the debate the negative won. The decision of the chair reversed that of the house.

Mr. Francis T. Bennett, P. A. '09, an ex-president of Philo, then addressed the society. The following men were voted into the society: H. R. Harris and F. M. Dougherty. An amendment to the constitution providing that any member of Philo who has been absent without excuse from one-half the regular meetings of the society be expelled from the society, was put to vote and unanimously passed. Mr. Parmelee rendered an interesting and instructive critique.

As it will be inconvenient for some of those assigned parts for the next meeting of Philo to give them so soon after the Thanksgiving holidays, next Friday evening, there will be no regular meeting at this time. The next regular meeting will therefore be held on Friday, December 3. The following is the program:

Selected reading, Corey; topics of the week, Brubaker. The affirmative of the debate will be upheld by H. H. Nute, leader, and Greene, assistant. Hawley and Fessenden will give the negative side. The question is, "Resolved, That it would be better from a practical point of view if all judges were appointed for life."

Mr. Moorehead Lectures

Mr. Moorehead gave a very interesting lecture Thursday evening, on the White Earth Indians. The lecturer first gave a short description of the Indians themselves and of the reservation in Northern Minnesota where they live. Then he exhibited about eighty very interesting slides. The mission of Rev. Mr. Smith was shown, and Mr. Moorehead told of the excellent work this full-blooded Indian was doing, and the great hold he had on the men of his race.

Mr. Moorehead then spoke of the bane of the Indians, consumption. The figures of the spread of this disease which he gave were astounding, but they were more than corroborated by the report of the doctors, who found six well children out of one hundred.

Some pictures were then given of Indian life, and the lecturer told how skilful these natives are at the game of baseball. Mr. Moorehead then exhibited a picture of Day Dodge, the last survivor of the famous Medecin Lodge. It was this man who presented to the curator the birch-bark roll containing the language and secrets of this mystic order.

A number of slides were shown of different Indian types, and Mr. Moorehead spoke about the high sense of honor the Indians have, and gave examples of their ready wit. The lecture closed with an exhibition of fine Indian beadwork presented to the curator by the Indians as a token of their friendship for him.

Mr. Poynter's Group

Mr. Poynter's discussion group has recently been organized. The subject to be taken up will be "Men of the Old Testament." Members of the class will meet in the Churchill Memorial Room, Phillips Hall, on Wednesday evening from 7 to 8 o'clock. However, there will be no meeting next Wednesday owing to the Thanksgiving recess.

Junior Middlers Win

The Junior Middlers defeated the Juniors last Wednesday by a score of 48 to 0. In spite of the rain and the slippery condition of the field, the open style of football was largely used. The Junior middle backs were all successful in making constant gains of twenty and thirty yards. The feature of the game was the forward passes to Wise, these being always attended by long gains. For 1912, all of the backs showed up well, and Wise was especially strong at end. For 1913, Dyer played the best game.

The line-up:

Final Soccer Games

Neither the Juniors nor the Junior Middlers had a full team last Wednesday, and in consequence a very loose and rather poor game was played. 1912 easily defeated their opponents, piling up a large score. Kwan for 1912 and Carril for 1913 showed up well. In the first half the playing became so hard that a hole was kicked in the ball.

The Seniors had no trouble in winning the last game of the soccer season last Wednesday from the Middlers, by the one-sided score of 3 to 0. In the first half neither side was able to score, though the ball was kept in the Middlers' territory all the time. In the second half 1910 put more life into their play and quickly made three goals. The playing of Foster for 1910 was a feature. Gridley and Look also showed up well for their respective teams.

Award of Numerals

At a meeting of the Advisory Board last night, the following men were passed on to receive their numerals:

BROOKS BROTHERS

Seniors, 17; Middlers, 0.

The Seniors defeated the Middlers last Wednesday, in the last game of the season, by the score of 17 to 0. The Seniors' team is the first one that has gone through the season without defeat since the institution of the inter-class contests. The game, although not deciding the series, was hard fought. 1910 made her first score two minutes after the first half had started, but during the rest of the period 1911 seemed to have slightly the better of it, twice getting within striking distance of the Seniors' goal. In the second half, however, the Seniors played by far the stronger game, and had little difficulty in scoring two touchdowns. For 1910 Dowling and Eames play well, while Thompson played best for 1911. The game in detail:

Harbison kicked off to Meader, who was downed on his 20 yard line after a gain of 10 yards. A forward pass was intercepted by Evans, who, on the next play, placed the ball on the 7 yard line after a run around right end. 1911 was offside, and was penalized to the 2 yard line. Hemingway was sent over for the touchdown and Eames kicked the goal. Shortly afterward, Bowles blocked 1911's forward pass, and placed the ball on the 15 yard line after a 20 yard run. On the third down Eames attempted a goal from placement, but failed. The play was now largely in the Seniors' territory and once even on the 10 yard line, where a penalty put the ball out of danger.

The second half started by 1911 kicking off to 1910. Shortly after, Dowling fell upon a fumble on the 35 yard line. Then getting an on-side kick, he ran 20 yards for a touchdown. Shortly before the close of the half, 1911, forced to kick from her 20 yard line, had her punt blocked by one of her own men, and Dowling fell on the ball on the 9 yard line. Hemingway scored the touchdown. For the rest of the half neither goal was in danger.
