INQUIRY

Dr. Paddock Gives Interesting Talk upon Western Life

Rev. E. A. Paddock of Weiser, Idaho, was the speaker at the meeting of the Society of Inquiry held on last Sunday evening. The attendance was the best of the term, if not of the year. Mr. Paddock is president of the Idaho Industrial Institute at Weiser, and as such is engaged in a charitable work in providing the sons and daughters of ranchmen with a place where they may acquire a practical education. He is a yearly visitor at Andover, and is always welcome speaker at Inquiry. On Sunday evening he entertained his many auditors with amusing anecdotes of western life and interesting experiences he has encountered in his twenty-five years' residence on the plains and among the mining camps of Colorado, Wyoming and Idaho.

The speaker said that he had no memory as to whether he had told his audience the same story or experience twice, but that he dug into the stock of his stories after the manner of a man searching in a grab-bag, and brought forth whatever his hand first came across. He said that it was an interesting thing to sometimes think of what one would do in a particularly trying position. As an illustration of his point, he told several stories: one of a drowning accident in which a man lost his life, simply because those about at the time lost their heads and stood around as if turned to stone. In contrast to this case, Mr. Paddock mentioned one in which a number of boys saved a young man and woman who were skating and went through the ice, from drowning by lying flat on the thin ice, each grasping the feet of the one before him, and the last one extending his hockey stick out until both people in the water could be pulled out onto the safe ice.

Mr. Paddock then related some experiences he had met with among Western men, and how some of these had been cured of the habit of swearing. He told of a stage driver with whom he had ridden, and who had the habit of constantly cursing and swearing at his horses. He spoke to him about it, and the driver did not swear again until at the end of the stage, it became necessary, on account of having to go through the snow-covered mountain pass, to change from the wagon to a sled. When the driver found that the bolt which held the tongue of the sled to it had

BASEBALL GAME

Varsity Team Defeats Team Composed of Faculty Members, 16 to 13

In an indoor baseball game replete with good fun, the varsity baseball men defeated the faculty last Saturday afternoon in the gymnasium by the score of 16 to 13. The faculty took the lead in the first three innings, but the varsity equalled their score in the fourth, and in the fifth inning took the lead which they held to the end of the game. Mr. Stearns starred with three strike-outs to his credit; Hodgkins and Ripley each made one.

The bases were not fixed and it was often disconcerting to a baseman, on turning around to touch the runner, to see him sliding off on the base. A foul which struck a low note on the piano, was nevertheless a base hit, according to Mr. Poynter's view of it.

The game began about ten minutes of four, when Mr. Stearns stood up to the plate. After one strike had been called on him, he made a safe hit and reached first. He stole second, and Mr. Stackpole made a hit. Mr. Stackpole stole second and Mr. Hayes knocked both men in. Mr. Hodgkins was left on second, as Mr. Tower, Mr. Poynter and Mr. Lillard were put out at first. Wright led the batting order for the varsity. He was out at first. Daugherty and Beedy, however, made safe hits and brought in two runs for the varsity. Mr. Sturgis brought in another run for the faculty in the second inning. None of the varsity were able to get farther than first.

In the third inning Mr. Hodgkins made a safe hit and reached second. Mr. Tower knocked him in and reached first. Another hit was made by Mr. Poynter. Mr. Lillard's sacrifice hit brought Mr. Tower in, and Mr. Poynter reached third and came home on Mr. Sturgis' sacrifice. Score: Faculty 6, Varsity 2. The varsity were unable to make a hit in this inning. The faculty did not increase their lead in the fourth, but the varsity brought in four runs and tied the score. Van Brocklin made a three-base hit. Three more runs were added to the faculty's total in the fifth by Mr. Tower, Mr. Lillard and Mr. French. A two-base hit was made by Mr. Stearns, but when sliding for second he broke his glasses. He was safe, however, and was left on third. Daugherty and Beedy each brought in a run for the varsity, and the score at the end of the fifth stood: Faculty 9, Varsity 8.

ANDOVER VS. SOMERVILLE

Andover Meets Somerville High School Today, at Hockey

At 3 p.m. this afternoon Andover will line up against the Somerville High School for the second hockey game of the year. Andover should put up a strong game, as the team has had some excellent practice since the last game. The team will line up the same as the last game, as many of the first strong men still have conditions.

Somerville High has a very strong team this year, and has the advantage of several games over Andover.

The two teams will line up as follows:

ANDOVER	SOMERVILLE
Hamerslag, g.	g. Donahue
Taylor, p.	p. Hamilton
Sturgis, cp.	cp. Garland

Rogers, r.	r. Whittaker
Fletcher, rw.	rw. Laurie

New Hampshire State College

At 3.30 this afternoon, Andover will line up against the New Hampshire State College for the fifth basketball game of the year.

Andover will line up the same as the last game, although if the game proves easy, some substitutes will be put in. Butts is still unable to play.

The New Hampshire State College has a strong team this year, and there is every reason to believe that there will be a good game. Andover has had a lot of practice and will put up a good game.

The team will lineup as follows:

B. Hay, c.
Washburn, rf.
Gould, lf.
Brann, rg.
Chatterton, lg.

ANDOVER WINS

Academy Team Wins from Stearns in a Decisive Game, 24 to 15

In a fast, though one-sided game last Saturday night, Andover defeated the Stearns School by a score of 24 to 15. Andover had everything her own way all through the game and was able to score almost at will. The Stearns School put up a very plucky game, however, and considering the fact that they were playing against a heavier and more experienced team, they deserve great credit for their showing.

It was evident that Stearns came to play a defensive game, and in this respect they were very successful, their guarding of the Andover forwards being a feature of the game. Their passing was bad, however, and their shooting was very wild. Andover, on the other hand, showed a decided improvement since the last game, the passing and shooting being very good.

The first half started off with a rush, and before a few minutes of play, Stearns had secured their first goal. Andover soon caught up, however, and by fast playing managed to tally sixteen points to their opponents' seven before time was called. In the second half, many new men were tried out for Andover, and as a result the team was weakened considerably. The Stearns team took advantage of this fact, and they made a great deal better showing. The half ended with the score 24 to 15 in Andover's favor. Chatterton starred for Andover, playing a very good all round game, while Mitchell and Hall played an excellent defensive game for Stearns. Keene also played a good game for the latter.

The largest number of goals for Andover was scored by Chatterton, who secured 5. Hay followed with 3 and Gould with 2. For Stearns, Arnold caged 4, and Keene and Barry followed with one each.

The game in detail:

FIRST HALF

After a few minutes of fast play Arnold started the scoring, caging one one for Stearns. Chatterton soon evened the score by caging one for Andover, and Gould quickly followed with another. Some clever passing gave Brann a chance and he shot a pretty goal. Hay caged a long one and Keene made another score for Stearns. Arnold followed with another. Gould carried the ball the length of the field and shot a long goal. Keene fouled, but Hay missed the try at goal. Andover fouled and Keene also missed the goal. This was soon

THE ANDOVER PRESS

January 25, 1911

This issue in charge of J. W. Barrell

We see that the track squad is not as large as it should be. It will be necessary for every fellow in school to go out for the team if we hope to turn the tables on Exeter this year. However, we do not believe that the apparent lack of interest is entirely due to a lack of spirit, as we understand that there are many good men in school who cannot get out of taking the regular gymnasium work. This is either due to the fact that they have not passed the strength test, or have not been taken on the track squad. It is hardly to be expected that a fellow can do much training after the work of the regular gymnasium class. Besides, but few fellows have the time to give in addition to the required work. Something has been said about having trials to pick the squad, but we fail to see where there will be a fair comparison between those who have been training for some time and any others who may enter the trials without training.

Team Standing

The following is the standing of the swimming pool teams. For the first time since the beginning of the teams, team five is in the lead.

- Team No. 1—$913.
- Team No. 2—$1164.
- Team No. 3—$2586.
- Team No. 4—$1793.
- Team No. 5—$2620.
- Commons men—$159.50.
- A total of $12,555.

Forum

At the regular meeting of Forum this week the declamation will be given by F. W. Smith, Chell will render the select reading, and R. F. Palmer will give the topics of the week. H. P. Wilson will speak extempore. The question for debate is, "Resolved, That basketball should be abolished as an intercollegiate sport." J. Clark, leader, and R. B. Pirnie, assistant, will speak on the affirmative, and L. W. Robinson, leader, and E. Winters on the negative. The critique will be rendered by Mr. Phillips.

Philo

The meeting of Philo to be held on next Friday evening will be a closed one, and open to members only. At that time two teams of three men each, chosen by lot from the squad of six picked at the preliminary trials, will debate on the question: "Resolved, that the policy of the administration regarding conservation is unwise." The affirmative will be defended by H. F. Smith, Shepardson, and Chutter, and attacked by Royce, R. W. Morse, and McHatton. The three coaches of the squad, Messrs. Hinman, Allen, and Porter will act as judges and will elect the three members and the alternate to represent the society in the annual Philo-Forum Debate from these six speakers.

This is the question proposed by Forum, and accepted by Philo for the inter-society debate. Philo has chosen the negative as the side to be taken by her in this debate. The choosing of the question alternates every year, and the society not having the choice of question has the choice of sides.

Banjo Club

There will be an important extra rehearsal of the Banjo Club at 6.45 sharp tonight in the basement of the Archaeology building. All members who possibly can should come out, as the Rogers Hall concert will be held Saturday.

Signed LEADER.

New Lockers

Large lockers are being installed in the drying room of the gymnasium for the use of varsity men. Previous to this the men have hung their clothes up to dry in a room common to all, and in this way much has been lost, causing no little inconvenience. With the new lockers installed, this inconvenience will be done away with, as the new ones will be large enough to hold the men's clothes. The work began Wednesday and will be completed soon.

been taken out, he began to swear around like a mad man, but on Mr. Paddock's asking him if that was going to help out matters, he quieted down, and then Mr. Paddock help the driver fix on the tongue, and successfully finish the trip. When he met the proprietor of the stage line, he told him that the driver had quit drinking, gambling, and swearing. Mr. Paddock said this showed that to speak gently about this habit to one who has it, is the best way to get him to stop it, for it makes him feel a certain self-contempt, and oftentimes causes him to give it up.

Mr. Paddock then spoke entertainingly of how mining is carried on in the mountains, and of how unsuspecting Easterners are induced to put their money in holes in the ground in the hope of making great fortunes. He spoke of character building and how everybody should strive not so much to make money only, but to make it in such a way that for every dollar we make we give its equivalent in time or labor, and ended by inviting all present to come to see him and his school out at Weiser.

1912 vs. 1914

To-day the Senior class hockey team will meet the Junior Middlers, while between the halves of this game 1912 will play 1914. On Saturday at the same time and on the same rink, the Seniors will meet the Middlers, and 1913 will play 1914.

The second of the series of class basketball games occurs this afternoon at 3.30, when the Middlers meet 1913 in the Borden gymnasium. The game promises to be a close and hard-fought one, as the teams are evenly matched and both have practiced diligently for the game. The lineup is as follows:

Dillon went in for Chatterton, and Darling for Gould. Time was taken out for Keene, but he resumed play. Stearns fouled; Hay missed. Barry caged one and Arnold followed with another. Andover fouled; Keene secured the point. It was now Stearns' turn to foul and Hay failed to cage the ball. Andover fouled. Keene missed, but soon secured a goal. Hockey Game Cancelled

Owing to the poor condition of the ice, the hockey game with the Crescents of Boston, which was to be played last Saturday afternoon, had to be called off.

1913 Win

In a hockey game replete with fast exciting plays the Middlers on Monday afternoon lost out to the Junior Middlers by a score of 2 to 1. This was the first class game of the season, and was played on Rabbit's Pond. The game was conspicuous for the spirit which both teams put into their play, and also for its roughness. Both sides used numerous substitutes, and the game was warmly fought throughout both halves. In fact, at the end of the second half the score was 1 to 1, and it took an extra five minutes of play before Biglow scored the winning goal for 1913. Grant made the other score for his side, and Farsthye was the only '12 man able to make a point. The original line-up follows:

1912 1913
 Hill, g. g. Brown
 Selden, p. p. Hogg
 Trounstine, cp. cp. Crowell
 Forsyth, r. r. O'Neil
 Large, lw. lw. Grant
 W. Smith (capt), c. c. Biglow
 Fullerton, rw. rw. Flagg (capt)

Seniors Win

In a very closely contested game last Monday afternoon on Rabbit's Pond, 1911 defeated 1914 in hockey by the score of 2 to 1. The 1911 team was handicapped owing to the absence of several of the team, but never-the-less it managed to win from 1914 seven, although it took an extra period of time. The seniors started off with a rush and Clarke scored the first goal right after the start of play. The game was roughly played by both sides throughout.

Just before the close of the first half Marvin scored a goal for 1914, thus tying the score. The game was renewed and the Juniors held the Seniors to no score, so that an extra period had to be played. Towards the end of the extra time, during a scrimmage around 1914's goal, Barrell scored the deciding goal.

Lindsay starred for 1914, while Clarke played well for 1911.

The line-up:

1911	1914
Hunter, g.	g. Cobb
R. Mayer, Tindel, p.	p. Daugherty
L. Mayer, cp.	cp. Foster
Clarke, r.	r. Lindsay
Tindel, R. Mayer, c.	c. Cook
Cole, lw.	lw. Thomas
Barrell, rw.	rw. Marvin

Seniors Win

Between the halves of the varsity game, last Saturday night, the first game of the interclass basketball series was played between 1911 and 1914. The game was very one-sided, and 1911 defeated the Juniors by the score of 13 to 5. Although the Juniors were outplayed, the game was hard fought and 1914 made the Seniors work hard for their victory. The largest number of goals for 1911 was scored by Alvord and Elms, each securing 2; Burrowes came next with one. The only goal for 1914 was scored by Marvin, while Duby made three points on fouls. The teams lined up as follows:

1911	1914
Alvord, rf.	rf. Marvin
Elms, lf.	lf. Lindsay
Meador, Pratt, c.	c. Rosener, Page
Hudner, rg.	rg. Winters
Burrowes, lg.	lg. Duby

Repeating Shotguns

USED IN THE U. S. ARMY.

The U. S. Army authorities know a gun; that is why, when they decided to equip some troops with repeating shotguns, they selected the Winchester in preference to all other makes. The experts of the U. S. Ordnance Board also know a gun; that's why, after submitting a Winchester Repeating Shotgun to all sorts of tests, they pronounced it safe, sure, strong and simple. If you want a shotgun—buy the one whose strength and reliability led the U. S. Army authorities to select it and the U. S. Ordnance Board to endorse it—that's the Winchester.

Intercollegiate A. A. A. Meeting

The executive committee of the Intercollegiate A. A. A. met in New York early this week and discussed several important changes in the rules governing intercollegiate athletic meets. They agreed to recommend the following change: that a rule be adopted barring any man who has not attended college for at least one year from representing his college in an intercollegiate meeting, thus barring Freshmen. The present rule only stipulates that a competitor at an intercollegiate meeting must have been a member of that college or university from October 15 of the previous year, and in good standing. This allows students who enroll in September to compete in the spring meetings. The adoption of the rule was strongly urged by Capt. Kilpatrick of the Yale track team. Yale and Harvard have long enforced a rule prohibiting Freshmen from competing in intercollegiate athletics, but some of the other institutions have made no distinction in this regard.

Another change is in the number of times which an athlete may compete in the intercollegiate games. The committee voted to recommend that that section of the constitution be changed from four to three years. They also went on record as advocating two changes in the rules of competition. The first relates to hurdling, amending the present rule, and calling for the disqualification of any hurdler who knocks down three or more hurdles, or any part of three or more hurdles. The other relates to the joist used in the running broad jump. It calls for a joist of eighth inches instead of five, as the scratch line, with dirt removed from the front to a depth of one-half inch instead of three inches. The committee also voted in favor of adding relay races to its list.

Discussion Groups

There seems to be some misunderstanding in regard to the Bible and Discussion groups, and the days upon which they meet. Mr. Lillard has consented to lead a tenth group, which will meet on Sundays at 11.45. His subject will be "Student Questions." Mr. Freeman's group will meet hereafter in the Archaeology building on Wednesday evenings at 7.00. The question for discussion this evening is "Money." The meeting of Mr. Stearns' class will be held on Sunday noon in the Churchill Memorial room in Phillips Hall. The complete schedule of classes for today is as follows:

7.00—Mr. Freeman's, Archaeology Building.

7.00—Mr. Hinman's Abbot House.
