CONFERENCE AT NORTHFIELD

Outline of the Work of the Student Conference

There may be some doubt in the minds of many as to what the Northfield Student Conference really is. Some think it is nothing but a solid week of prayer-meetings, while others think it is a week of nothing but sports and a "good time." Northfield is neither. It is a week of intelligent and helpful discussion, and thought, in company with the finest type of college man, and under the leadership of the best men obtainable in the world for the teaching of a real true life, combined with a week of athletics of all sorts, and plenty of time for relaxation and the company of the fellows at the conference.

A day at Northfield might be described as follows: In the morning there are discussion groups for the study of the Bible and the progress of Christianity in the world today. There is a special hour for personal contact between the delegates to the conference and the leaders whom they may wish to consult. After these groups there is a meeting of the entire conference in the large auditorium, addressed by men who know the problems of students. The afternoons are given over entirely to recreation—baseball, tennis, swimming and walks over the hills. During the conference there is a baseball championship series between teams from each school or college represented at the conference.

SENIORS DEFEAT JUNIORS

Washburn's Long Drive Sends in Winning Run

The Seniors turned the tables on the Juniors Tuesday afternoon and defeated them in a close game by the score of 5 to 4. This defeat of 1915, and 1913's victory yesterday afternoon brings both these teams to an even standing in the series. Both teams played exceptionally good ball, and the victory was in doubt until the last inning when a rally of two runs was made by the Seniors. Washburn's spectacular catch and timely three-bagger in the seventh inning were the features of the game. The score:

	1912	1915
Pfaffmann, lf.	4 0 1 11 0	3 1 1 2 1 0
Burnham, 3b	1 1 0 2 0 0	3 0 0 11 2 1

HARVARD WINS

Andover Defeated in the First Lacrosse Game of the Season

The Andover Lacrosse team opened its season last Saturday when they were defeated by the strong Harvard Freshman team, who scored 11 goals to Andover's 1. The game throughout was fast and exciting and Captain Gustafson of the Harvard Varsity Lacrosse team, was delighted with the snap and energy with which the Andover team went against the Freshmen. In the first half Harvard '15 managed to score 5 goals, while Capt. Roberts scored once for Andover. During the second half the Freshmen played with greater team work and were able to score six times. Many good stops were made by Levy, the Andover goal tended, however, and Sullivan did some very effective checking. Captain Roberts and Blum were Andover's best forwards. Lucas and Nightingale played well for the Freshmen, each scoring three goals. After the game Captain Gustafson gave a little talk to the Andover team, recommending that they should practice short accurate passing, and also to run to and from the field each day that they might develop the endurance which is absolutely essential in the game. Another game was also arranged for Wednesday with the Harvard second team. This match will be partly a practice one as both teams will be coached while they play. At present it is expected to play the game on Brother's field after the Andover-Colby baseball game.

The line-ups on Saturday were:

HARVARD	ANDOVER
Schoeder, g.	g. Levy
Kelly, p.	p. Sullivan
Little, cp.	cp. Adams
Roseback, 1d	1d Dimbie
Cotton, 2d	2d Lovett

J. R. Flemming oh.	oh. Palmer
C. S. Flemming, ih	ih Stebbins
Goals scored: Roberts 1, Lucas 2, Nightingale 3, C. S. Flemming 2, J. R. Flemming 3.

Valuable Gift to the Library

Mrs. James C. Sawyer has presented to the library of the Academy a series of pictures of the presidents of the United States. The pictures, which are exact reprints of those in the White House gallery, will be of great interest and value to the students in American History, who appreciate most fully the generosity of the donor.

College Notes

The alumni of Yale in New York City are going to erect a new club house. The building, which will be twenty stories high, will be situated on West 44th Street, and will cost in the neighborhood of one million dollars.

By the will of the late Dr. Francis Bacon a sum of $200,000 has been given to Yale University as a permanent scholarship fund. The income from this money will be used to aid deserving students who are in need of financial help.

W. G. Dickey, P. A. '10, Yale '14, has been elected captain of the Yale soccer team for next year. Dickey played on his class and on the school soccer team while he was at Andover. He has played two years as fullback on the Yale team.

E. Vaughn Kennedy, P. A. ex-'12, has accepted a position as confidential secretary with the Hudson River Navigation Company.

Men Entering College From Prep Schools

The Yale News has gathered statistics showing to what colleges the Seniors in the different pre-paratory schools intend to go. The thirteen schools from which the statistics were taken are Andover, Exeter, Groton, Hill, Hotchkiss, Lawrenceville, Pawling, Pomfret, St. Paul's, St. Mark's, Taft, West-minister, and the University School. Yale will receive the larg-est number of men from these schools, as 235 men intend to enter Yale, and Harvard is second with 113. Andover will send the largest number to Yale—90 men, and Hill, Hotchkiss and Exeter follow. Ex-eter will send the most men to Harvard, while Lawrenceville as usual leads in the number going to Princeton. The total number of men going from the above named schools to Pennsylvania, Columbia, Williams, Amherst, and Michigan is 38, while those going to other colleges number 89. The table showing where the men intend to go is as follows:

	Yale	Harvard	Princeton	Cornell	Williams
Andover	90	21	7	9	4

YOUR SUMMER PLANS

The fellows who require tutoring during the summer will be interested to know of the advantages afforded by Eagle Rock Lodge, a summer tu-toring camp, under the management of Clyde Martin, P. A. '10, Yale '13, and Dr. Page.

The camp is situated upon a beau-tiful lake, 14 mi. long by 1 mi. wide, midway between the towns of Naples and Harrison, Me.

Mr. Hinman and Mr. Boyce of the faculty are among the tutors who are admirably adapted to giving fellows a boost in their studies.

A full supply of boats, canoes, etc., is on hand, the fishing is good, a base-ball field has been graded, and the af-ternoons will be entirely devoted to sports, while the mornings are given up to earnest work.

Fellows needing help to pass their college examinations, or to make up school work, and at the same time wishing to have a most enjoyable summer's outing may obtain booklets containing full information of the camp, from Clyde Timbie, or talk with any of the persons mentioned above.

ence, a tennis tournament and an intercollegiate track meet. In the evening at sunset, the conference gathers on a knoll known as Round Top, and is addressed for an hour by men who deal with the great problems of life. These sunset talks on Round Top are known as the most popular talks of the day. At the end of the conference, a celebration is held, in which every school and college group takes part, each dressed in its own distinctive costume. Many wierd and amusing spectacles are furnished on the night of the celebration, and perhaps the greatest is the wonderful bonfire—almost 100 feet in height, and which lights up the valley for miles around. Thus it will be seen that thought and play are admirably worked in together—and the result is the greatest gathering, from all points of view, of school and college men in the world today.

Among schools sending delegations to Northfield, in addition to Andover, are Hotchkiss, Hill, Worcester, Mercersburg, Lawrenceville and Mt. Hermon. Andover usually has a smaller crowd than any of these schools, and it is hoped this year that we can send at least twenty—and more if possible. Let every man realize by going that not only will he help Andover, but he will be infinitely helping himself by coming in contact with the finest type of men to be found. It is a known fact that Northfield is the turning point in many a fellow's life.

BIG GAME TODAY

Local fans will again be treated to a fast game today at 1.45, between the Abbot Sluggers and the Hamilton All-Stars, on the Old Campus. Both teams are tuned up to the minute and a close game is assured.

ANDOVER SONGS AND CHEERS*The Phillipian March

Here comes the team, let's cheer them on,
Show them our hearts are true.
Might always gains but courage wins,
So will our boys in blue.
We're here to win again,
And bound again to gain.
We'll guard, protect and bear on high
Old Andover's fair name.

Chorus:

Cheer, cheer, boys, cheer, cheer,
For the game is surely ours.
We're winning every point,
We're heaping up the score.
Our foemen tremble,
For they cannot long prevail.
With old Andover's grit and sand
A team can never fail.

Andover Victory Song

Come, ye sons of old Andover,
Send the ball a-plunging over,—
Play with might and main,
Ten more yards to gain;
Send the Crimson back to cover
While around the goal we hover
A—N—D—O—V—E—R
Show them who we are!

CHORUS

Andover's it to-day,
Get out and watch us play,
See our heroes go
Smashing through the foe;
Onward, now, everyone,
Fight till the game is won,
Hats off and cheer them, poor Exeter fears them,
P. A. and victory! (Rah! Rah! Rah!)
See our score is growing, growing,
All up now and make a showin,—
Loyal to the Blue,
We are ever true;
Hear the grandstand shouting madly,
Exeter is beaten badly,—
A—N—D—O—V—E—R
They know who we are.

Forum Banquet

On Friday evening at 7.30 sharp Forum will hold its annual banquet at the Inn. The society certainly has a right to be proud of its record this year, and all members should be present prepared to have a good time. The committee in charge of the banquet consists of the following members: F. W. Smith, chairman; H. S. Gulliver, and O. L. Chell. The committee has worked hard to make the banquet one of the most successful in recent years, and the society should show its appreciation of their efforts by attending to a man. Harold S. Gulliver, president of Forum, will be the toastmaster. The speakers and their subjects are as follows:

Mr. Crawford—"The Forum of the Romans."

J. W. Cooke, president of Philo—"Our Sister Society."

Mr. Fuess—"Some Great Debaters."

Mr. Stearns—"The Value of Debating."

Deutscher Verein

Dr. Hager of Lawrence spoke at the meeting of the Deutscher Verein held in the Archaeology building on Tuesday evening. He gave an interesting sketch of the course of the Rhine, from its source in Switzerland through Germany to the sea. The important cities of which he spoke are Wiesbaden, Mainz, Frankfurt, Coblenz, Cologne and Dusseldorf. Each one of these cities has its distinctive characteristics, of which Dr. Hager gave many instances.

The next meeting will be held on Monday evening, as there will be an entertainment down town on Tuesday, the day on which the meetings are usually held.

1913 Defeats 1914

On Tuesday afternoon 1913 defeated 1914 by the score of 20 to 1. The game lasted only three and a half innings, and 1914 did not get their last bat because of lack of time. 1913 won through better all-round playing and heavy hitting. Butterfield was wild at times, allowing several Middlers to advance while on base. For the Middlers, Van Brocklin, Chatterton, and Gaines played well. In batting, Allen, Holmes and Van Brocklin excelled, each getting two hits. Thompson, Allen, and Wells did the best all-round work for 1914. The game was very one-sided throughout, and 1913 scored several times in every inning with the exception of the first. The 1913 second team won from the 1914 seconds, 8 to 5.

Inquiry

At the Society of Inquiry last Sunday, Mr. Porter described Northfield and the activities which take place there during the week of the student conferences. In opening Mr. Porter recalled to the fellows that, while we were joined in athletics and societies to several other schools, yet the work that kept them in touch with the greatest number of schools and universities was the voluntary Christian work, such as done by the Society of Inquiry and similar societies. Thousands of schools are enrolled in this voluntary work, and in the International Student conference, which will be held next year, delegates will be present from over forty different nations. Mr. Porter continued by saying that as this tie between the schools is not, at present, very strong, the fellows are likely to become so immersed in their own school and its systems, that they do not see the advantage and superiority in any other arrangement than their own. Thus the student wishing to broaden his view and comprehension of the Christian work done in the schools, the Northfield conferences are the best adapted for this, as here one meets some of the greatest Christian speakers and comes in contact with the big men of the prominent colleges, who are the leaders in this work. The conference will begin on the 21st of June and last over the 30th.

Mr. Porter discussed Northfield as a place of information, recreation, and inspiration. According to the plan, the morning is divided up into three parts, the first of which is spent in bible study. In the second, a School Association conference is held in which the methods that have been found successful in the various schools will be discussed. The last part of the morning there are the regular platform meetings with addresses by the conference speakers. The entire afternoon is given over to athletics, during which the baseball and tennis tournaments are played off. In the evening, camp fire meetings are held on the Round Top; a small mountain nearby.

This plan has been carried on successfully for several years, and over two hundred students annually attend these conferences. Mr. Porter closed his talk by hoping that Andover would send as large a delegation as was there last year, as this year the conference will be a great deal larger and some exceptionally good speakers have been secured.

Mirror Notice

All contributions for the June number of the Mirror must be in the hands of the managing editor not later than Saturday, May 25, to ensure publication in that number.

The May Issue of the Mirror

The May number of the Mirror comes out Thursday. The cover is quite different from that of any previous issue and is a very well executed design. The Mirror opens with a short biography, "A New England Schoolmaster," by M. W. S. The author describes a number of interesting incidents in the life of John Adams, who was the Principal of Phillips Academy from 1910 until 1833. A well-handled story, "Two Shepherds," by F. W. Smith, '12, follows, written in the Yorkshire dialect. It centers about a pair of lovers in the days of Mary of England, and proves to be a very pleasing story. "The Cat," by R. W. Morse, '13, is a story of a New Mexican Indian and his feline companion. The cat turns out to be a ferocious beast of bloodthirsty proclivities, finally killing the grafter who has attempted to defraud her master. S. G. Jones, '13, has written "The Call of the Aux Lievres," a finished story of the Canadian back woods and its lumber-jacks. "A Bachelor's Awakening," by H. F. Smith, '12, has a very good plot and is one of the most entertaining stories which have appeared in the Mirror.

The issue closes with an editorial and a well-handled exchange column.

Clothing Collection

The Society of Inquiry will take up another collection of clothing to send to Dr. Grenfell. The date of the collection is uncertain, but it will probably not be taken up for at least some time. Any fellows who have winter clothing which is still serviceable, but which they do not expect to use again, are asked to save it. Flannel shirts, sweaters, and heavy trousers are especially welcome, as well as any woolen clothes.

The Army and Navy fencing teams took the first and second places from Cornell, last year's champions, in the finals of the intercollegiate fencing tournament. West Point finished first with 41 bouts of 45, while the Navy secured second winning 29 out of 45, bettering Cornell by one bout. Cornell finished third with 28 out of 45.

The following old Andover men have made the training table of the Yale baseball team: Reilly, Merritt, Burdette and Bennett.

Beedy, J. S. Reilly, Middlebrook and Ripley are at present playing on the Yale Freshman team. All were in school last year and on the team. Beedy is playing second base, Reilly is playing third and is captain, while Middlebrook is playing in the outfield. Ripley is pitching.

Fiction in the Library

The following is a partial list of the fiction in the Library: sets of Jane Austen, Dickens, Hawthorne, Victor Hugo, Stevenson and Scott; partial sets of Conan Doyle, Bret Harte, Sienkiewicz, Gilbert Parker, Kipling, Howells, Meredith, Stockton and Thackeray; and many single titles, as for example: The Cloister and the Hearth, Cooper's Spy and Pilot, Baron Munchausen, Hugh Wynne and Westward Ho!

Any member of the school may draw out from the Library any book, except books of reference, books temporarily reserved for class use or those books which, because of their size or value, it is impossible to send into circulation. The books are loaned for two weeks but may be renewed, upon application, unless the book is in demand.

Two New Prizes

Since the recent announcement of the newly established prize for excellence in English History, two further prizes have been added to the list.

Joseph Edward Otis, P. A. '88, offers a prize of fifty dollars to be awarded annually to that member of the graduating class who in the opinion of the faculty has made the best all-round improvement during his school course. Only those who have been members of the school for at least three academic years will be eligible for this prize. In awarding the prize both scholarship and character are to be taken into consideration.

Charles H. P. Schweppe, P. A. '98, offers two prizes of thirty and fifty dollars each to be awarded annually for excellence in English. The competition will be open to members of the two upper classes.

Juniors Defeat 1914

On Saturday afternoon on the Library Campus the 1915 baseball team defeated 1914, 13 to 11. The large score was due to the heavy hitting of the Juniors, and to a combination of hits and errors which gave the Junior Middlers eight runs in one inning. 1915 did the best batting, but their opponents were much better in the field. McGray and Bean starred at bat for 1915, both getting four hits, while for 1914 Rogers did the best work with the stick. The fielding of both teams was rather ragged.

In both the first and second innings each of the teams secured one run. 1915 then got three in the third and two in the fourth. In the sixth the Juniors secured three more runs while the Junior Middlers got one. At the end of the sixth the score stood 10 to 3 in favor of the Juniors, but in the seventh, after the Juniors had secured one run, the 1914 team had a batting rally and with the help of their opponents' errors secured eight runs, tying the score. In the ninth, two more runs were added to 1915's total, making the final score 13 to 11.

The next meeting of Philo will be held on Friday at 7.15 in the Science building. All members who have not yet paid the fee for the banquet are asked to do so at this meeting. The program will be as follows:

Select reading, Farrell; topics of the week, Burkhart; subject for debate, "Resolved, that the United States should follow out the present policy of increasing the navy." Affirmative, leader, M. H. Boynton; assistant, Makepeace. Negative, leader, Small; assistant, Martinez. Mr. Keep will give the critique.

1913 Defeats 1912

1913 easily defeated 1912 by the score of 10-4 last Saturday afternoon. The Seniors played a loose and careless game, making twelve errors. The Middlers scored four times both in the third and fourth innings, thus securing an easy lead over the Seniors, which they were not able to overcome. In batting, however, the Seniors obtained 10 hits to their opponents 8. A rally was made in the ninth when 1912 scored three, but sharp fielding prevented further runs. The 1913 second team also defeated 1912 second team.

Forum

At the regular meeting of Forum held Friday evening, Henn gave a most interesting select reading. Mainini covered all the important events of the week in a clear and entertaining summary, and Johnson gave an extemporaneous speech on the work that the school team is doing in preparation for the debate with Exeter. The evening's debate, "Resolved, that the President of the United States should be elected for a term of six years and should not be eligible for reelection," proved a very timely subject and was well debated by Winters and Hawley on the affirmative and Smith and Perkins on the negative. The work of the assistants was especially good and the final decision was given in favor of the affirmative. Next week the society's annual banquet will be held instead of the regular meeting.
