LECTURE

Mr. Blanchard Gives Interesting Talk on the West

On Thursday evening in the Chapel, Mr. C. J. Blanchard gave a very interesting and thoroughly enjoyable lecture on "The Development of the Great West." Mr. Blanchard is with the United States Reclamation Service, and comes in close connection with the changing conditions on which he spoke. A good crowd attended the lecture. He spoke in a most interesting manner and the pictures that were shown were excellent.

Promptly at 8 o'clock the speaker was introduced by Mr. Lillard. Mr. Blanchard began by telling that what he had to offer was not really a lecture, but a talk, accompanied by views, to show the people in the eastern part of the country what actual sights and wonders of nature could be seen in the western part of the United States. He compared the grandeur of the sights to the world-renowned attractions in Europe. He spoke of the conditions that existed in the vast country west of the Missouri River before white men really began to settle there, and then traced the changes that have been brought about up to the present time. The cowmen were the first to settle here, and they were followed by the sheepmen. He showed some fine pictures of cowboy and pioneer life, and of the early cultivation and irrigation of the country. Mr. Blanchard then showed a series of excellent pictures of mountain views including the famous Yellowstone Canon, Grand Canon of the Colorado, forests of California, and the Petrified Forest of Arizona. The colors in these pictures were brought out wonderfully. He dwelt for a moment on the opportunities for home-seekers in the Southwest, and how this was becoming more and more realized, owing to the wonderful achievements in irrigation.

The speaker gave a very interesting account of the ancient cliff-dwellers of the Southwest and accompanied his description with some splendid pictures of the old ruins of these antique peoples, which are still standing. He told about the present conditions of the Indians in that country and showed some very good pictures of numerous Indian scenes. The most interesting account was given of irrigation work being done by the government all through the West. He showed how the desert is being turned into rich land for agriculture and told of the great amount of wealth that was resulting from this work. To illustrate more fully, Mr. Blanchard showed a picture of Denver, Colo., situated at the edge of the great plains, and at the foot of the Rocky Mountains, a town which was at first a mining town, and owing to the wealth acquired from the cultivation of the vast lands about it, is today the leading commercial center of the West and one of the most beautiful cities in this country. Very good pictures were shown of the existing conditions in Arizona and Southern California. Mr. Blanchard spoke very interestingly on the government dam projects which have been and are in the act of construction, the most important of which are the Shoshone Dam in Wyoming and the Roosevelt Dam in Arizona. He explained very minutely the con-

SWIMMING MEET

Andover vs. Harvard

Today at three o'clock in the pool, the swimming team will meet the Harvard Varsity team. This is the first meet of the year and all the fellows should turn out and give the team loyal support. During the past three weeks the squad has been working out daily, and under the able coaching of Mr. Murray a team has been developed which should give a very creditable showing against its older and more experienced opponents. A few men are ineligible on account of conditions, but the team will not be greatly weakened. An excellent relay team has been developed, and this event together with the 50-yd. dash should bring out the keenest competition. Harvard will be represented by one of the speediest teams that they have had in some time.

Captain Hitchcock, who played tackle on last season's football team, comes from Honolulu, where many of the world's fastest swimmers have been developed. Gillman, also of Honolulu, is a fast and experienced swimmer. Logan, another man on the team, is ranked among the best of college swimmers and formerly represented the B. A. A.

The Andover entries are as follows:

First relay team—Captain J. Gould, Hulbert, Bevins, Rosener.
Second relay team—Brinkerhoff, K. Woolley, Dillman, Bradley.
50-yd. dash—Hulbert, Bevins.
100-yd. dash—Allen, Rosener.
200-yd. swim—Capt. J. Gould, Brophy.
Plunge—Bradley, Brophy, Light, Baldrige.
Diving—Mr. Gould, Hulbert, Bevins.

P. S. Crary has been appointed to serve on the Senior Reception Committee.

Gym Notice

All candidates for the gym team are to report at the gym today at four o'clock for practice.

Notice

There will be a voluntary gym class for all baseball men every Wednesday and Saturday at three o'clock. The first class will be held next Wednesday. There will be a few sprinting starts, some Indian club swinging and setting-up exercises. No attendance will be taken.

Communication

To the Editors of the Phillipian:

In spite of all that has been said a considerable proportion of the members of the school still continue to cut across the campus from Pearson Hall towards the Faculty Club. Although there is no doubt that this could be stopped if every fellow was sufficiently careful, still, I would like to offer the suggestion that the hole in the fence opposite the Faculty Club be obstructed in such a way that the fellows will deem it inexpedient to use it as a gate. If this was done, the necessity for quite a little talking would be done away with, and the temptation to cross the campus, with its consequent injury to the grass, would be removed.

The regular meeting of Forum was held last evening in the Archaeology Building. The subject debated was: "Resolved, That a federal graduated income tax should be adopted in the United States." The speakers for the affirmative were Palmer and Davison, and for the negative Hatch and Morrison. The negative side won. The extempore was given by Medlicott. Prescott gave the Select Reading. Mr. Crawford acted as critic. It was proposed that the time of the meeting be changed from 7.15 to 8 o'clock.

By a vote of the members Forum decided to take the affirmative side of the question for the Philo-Forum debate.

MR. BOYCE SPEAKS

Gives Interesting Experiments

Last Saturday afternoon Mr. Boyce gave a very interesting lecture on Elementary Physics and Chemistry, to the members of the Andover Night School at Lawrence. Mr. Boyce made many spectacular experiments, explaining each in a very interesting and clear manner. As his audience was composed almost entirely of foreigners, his task was a difficult one. There were about fifty members of the Night School present. By the looks of their faces and the questions they asked it was evident that they all enjoyed it.

Musical Clubs Concert

Saturday night, February 15th, it is expected that the combined musical clubs will give a concert in Lawrence City Hall. Tickets for the concert will be given out among the foreigners free of charge. Two years ago the musical clubs gave a similar concert. About 1000 foreigners were present. It is to be hoped that the concert this year will be even a greater success.

Organ Recital

On Wednesday afternoon Mr. Pfatteicher gave a very interesting organ recital in the chapel. The program, all selections from Bach, was as follows:
Choral prelude: "Alle Henschen müssen sterben."
Prelude in b min.
Choral prelude: "Herzlich tut mich verlangen."
Toccata in F maj.

Notice

There is still a vacancy in the cast of the Dramatic Club play. Anybody wishing to try for the part of "Kempster" (a man sergeant) should see Mr. Stott at once.

Inquiry

Mr. Chamberlain, owing to his inability to make good train connections back to Amherst Sunday night, will not be able to speak tomorrow evening at Inquiry. The speaker will be Mr. Thurber of the faculty.

Music Notes

The prelude at the morning service tomorrow will be Bach's Fantasia in G min. The choir will sing Spintler's "In heavenly love abiding." At vespers the prelude will be the pastorate from Guilman's first organ sonata. The choir will sing the choral, "Praise to the Lord the Almighty the King of Creation."

The weekday preludes will be: Monday, a Ricercare by Christian Erbach (†Augsburg 1635); Tuesday a Prelude by Mich. Pratorius (†Wolfenbittel 1621); Thursday a Prelude by Melch. Franck (†Coburg, 1629). Friday a Choral-Prelude "Ich ruf zu Dir, Herr Jesu Christ" by Sam. Scheidt (†Halle, 1654). Scheidt was the first organist to employ the choral, in an embellished form, as organ solo.

The organ recital in the chapel next Wednesday afternoon will be by Mr. Wilson Townsend Moog of the Department of Music at Smith College.

THE ANDOVER PRESS

January 25, 1913

The Phillipian makes another call for heelers for the competition of the winter term. More men should come out especially from the lower classes. It is not too late to begin, as any fellows who will do reasonably good work have a very good chance of making the board. In trying for the position of editor of the Phillipian, much valuable experience may be gained and this term is the best for heeling as there are fewer outdoor sports and games which may be enjoyed. Any fellows who desire to enter the competition should see R. S. Cook, 19 Phillips Hall.

Rowing at Exeter

A meeting has been held by the Exeter students interested in boating and a plan arranged for the spring practise. It is proposed to form two crews to be known as the Reds and the Grays. They will race each other, and by this means some idea of the value of the men can be obtained. The clubs will hold all manner of boat races so all the students can become interested.

A Review of 1912

The year 1912 has been in many ways a remarkable one in intercollegiate athletics. It has seen the honors very evenly divided, no college winning a championship in more than one of the four major sports. Better still, the titles won have been so clear cut that there is no possibility for dispute. Reckoning on the importance and number of the championships, the highest athletic honors for the year should be divided between Princeton and Pennsylvania, as each excelled in one major and two minor sports. The former finished first in baseball, tennis, and hockey; the latter in track, cricket and swimming. Yale won three championships, but all of them were in minor sports. Harvard carried off four, but two of them cannot be counted in reckoning a general standing because they are not truly intercollegiate. Following is a table of the fifteen leading sports:

Football—Harvard.
Baseball—Princeton.
Track Athletics—Pennsylvania.
Rowing—Cornell.
Cross Country—Harvard.
Soccer—Yale.
Cricket—Pennsylvania.
Golf—Yale.
Tennis—Princeton.
Wrestling—Cornell.
Hockey—Princeton.
Fencing—West Point.
Gymnastics—Yale.
Basketball—Columbia.
Swimming—Pennsylvania.

COLLEGE NOTES

The class of '87 of the Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute, Troy, N. Y., has presented it with a new gymnasium at a cost of $150,000. The gymnasium has been built and is now in use. It contains a swimming pool 30 feet by 75 feet in size, bowling alleys, rooms for inside baseball, basketball, handball, boxing, wrestling, a squash court and the main gymnasium for general athletic exercise. The building is equipped throughout with the most approved modern apparatus. It is built of Harvard brick with limestone trimmings and is fireproof throughout.

Three gifts to Bowdoin College have been announced by President Hyde. John S. Hyde of Bath has increased his gift for the construction of the new Thomas W. Hyde athletic building from $25,000 to $42,000, which latter sum covers the complete cost of the building. The college has been notified that Levi M. Stewart, late of Minneapolis, Minn., had left an unconditional bequest of $50,000 to Bowdoin. Mr. Stewart was a former resident of Maine and a graduate of Dartmouth. The college also has received funds for the construction of a new dormitory, which is to be built within five years.

President Nichols of Dartmouth College announced Wednesday at the forty-ninth annual dinner of the New York Alumni association, a gift of $75,000 from D. D. Stewart of St. Albans, Me., to the college.

Announcement of a gift of $50,000 to Bates College was made Wednesday by George C. Chase, president of the college. The donor is David D. Stewart of St. Albans, Maine.

That Cornell's banners and other athletic trophies might have a fitting and adequate place in which they may be displayed and preserved, the Cornell University Christian Association has instituted a campaign to raise $3,000. The money will be used for the remodeling of Barnes Hall, in which the old trophy room has been maintained. Nearly $1,000 of the necessary sum has been subscribed and the remodeling work will be started in a few weeks.

The Columbia University trustees announced the acceptance of gifts to the university amounting to $52,355, at their annual meeting held recently. The most important single gift was that of $8,000 from Mr. Edward D. Adams for the equipment of a laboratory for physical research.

Thorpe Vindicated

The charges forwarded to the Amateur Athletic Union from Worcester that James Thorpe, the Carlisle Indian, played professional baseball with the Winston-Salem team in the Carolina Association, fell flat yesterday.

Glen Warner, the Carlisle Indian School coach, yesterday had James E. Sullivan, chairman of the National Registration Committee, on the telephone from Carlisle and informed Mr. Sullivan that he had received a letter from Manager Clancey stating that he was misquoted in the Worcester paper and that he never made the statement that appeared; that it was unauthorized and was not founded on fact.

Clancey wrote that Thorpe never played on his team or any other team in the league and that the statement that he signed Thorpe up to pitch for his team was an absolute falsehood.

He said, however, that Thorpe did practice with the team when he was down there on hunting trips and often exercised with his men, and his picture appeared in a group taken at the grounds one morning, and that this was probably what the whole story was based on.

Thorpe was to arrive in New York today. He will have a talk with Mr. Sullivan and tonight will compete in three special races at the Fordham University games.

Result of Rifle Matches

The result of the third match in the intercollegiate series of gallery rifle-shooting matches for the college championship was announced yesterday by the National Rifle Association, as follows: Dartmouth, 902; Clemson Agricultural, 850; Columbia, 939; Cornell, 886; Lehigh, 838; Rhode Island State, 688; Massachusetts A. C., 954; Princeton, 944; Norwich, 912; Vermont, 877; M. I. T., 929; North Georgia A. C., 901; Harvard, 950; Maine, 839; California, 887; Kansas, 783; Wisconsin, 873; Louisiana State, 858; Minnesota, 924; Washington State, 862; West Virginia, 931; Michigan A. C., 921; Nebraska, 828; United States Veterinary, 820; Iowa, 928; Purdue, 901; Oklahoma A. & M., with 866, won by default from Missouri.

struction and purpose of the Roosevelt Dam, and showed some excellent pictures. He told of the vast importance of the Gunnison Tunnel in Colorado, and showed pictures that have resulted from that great piece of engineering work.

To show the scenic grandeur he displayed many pictures of the mountains, and the coloring effects in all these were exquisite.

Lastly Mr. Blanchard took up the actual benefits that the deserts of Arizona have derived from irrigation, and showed pictures of the condition of farms and orchards there at this time. His last few pictures were some odd ones which he has taken in his travels, and they proved very amusing and interesting.

Communication

One of the greatest opportunities that can come to any fellow is to be a member of the School Boys' party that will visit Europe during the summer holidays. He will be received throughout Europe as a representative of a great country, making friendships with boys from all nations, besides receiving the many educational benefits derived from foreign travel, and at the same time participating in the real outing in Switzerland.

Many of the boys already enrolled are the "big" fellows of their respective schools. This means new friendships to be made among the boys of the party and it also means that American boys may be able to show their foreign hosts something in the way of athletics.

As an outing, consider the fun a party of one hundred American boys can have on board a trans-Atlantic liner; then there are the tramps in Scotland, the one-day excursion around Stratford, the rows that are promised at Cambridge, and the early morning Dickens walks around London, and the experience gained by visiting the English schools and universities, as well as being royally received by Royalty. Then, crossing the Channel is always a delightful experience. The fishing trips on the Zuyder Zee will prove an experience, and finally, the grand outing in Switzerland.

The arrangement for sight-seeing is in small groups so that boys may visit the particular places that interest them most, the main party being together only on special events.

Every schoolboy, whether he is fortunate enough to be enrolled in the party, or is a member of this school, should take an active interest in the first visit of the American School Boys to Europe.

Patriotically, this is one of the real opportunities for the American School Boys to show Europe the true worth of the American School and its pupils.

We are advised that there are several vacancies in our school party. Preliminary registration closes March 1st, and boys that are interested are advised to see Mr. Pifer at once.

T. L. DeCamp, P. A. '12, has been entered in the Harvard Indoor track meet. He will high jump.
